Staff Message

----it is May, 1960
----the school year is nearly a memory
----the once buzzing annual office is deserted
----yet the whole year rings in this little room
----for here, amidst dealines and confusion, evolved
the 1960 Statesman
----for some, these pages are the beginning of rewarding high school years
----for others, they mark the close of adolescence
----for all, the 1960 Statesman holds unforgotten
memories of this school year

Every Jefferson student is familiar with the view from under the arcade, or as you approach the school from the drive up the hill.

The west entrance and the library also bring back memories of the school year.

Okl

Curtain call of "Sabrina Fair"

The play is over, the cast is gone . . .

homa!

Even as the audience is watching this scene from "Sabrina Fair", the audio-visual students are busy behind the scenes in the control room.

Just as we can look over the city from our library, so can we look back over the school year and remember the dances, the games we won (and those we almost won), the race to the cafeteria, and many other wonderful things that all were a part of this past year at Jefferson High.

Jefferson Loyalty Song

Jefferson High, high on a hill,
Sing we now thy praise.
Colors blue and white, lead us in the right,
Our voices in tribute we raise.

When graduation comes, we'll go our separate ways,
But never will we lose the memory of these days.
Jefferson High, framed by the sky,
Sing we thy song of praise.

Looking back . . .

Do you remember the coke machine in the student lounge that never seemed to be working when you wanted it to?

Or the showcase with the trophies won at our athletic events?

Or the crowd at a basketball game as the J-Hawks shoot for a winning basket?

Principal's Message

We are nearing the end of another decade in the twentieth century. Every new decade presents new challenges to everyone. We cannot and should not turn our backs on progress; therefore, everyone should strive to be better prepared to meet the new challenges that we know lie ahead. We may not all reach the heights as implied in the title of the book, "The Statesman," but we must all set our sights on higher goals if we are to meet the demands in the decade ahead.

Office Personnel

Mrs. Evelyn Wieneke, Bookkeeper, and Maxine Cervený, Secretary

The smooth operation of Jefferson high school may be attributed to the efficient and capable work of the office personnel. Many hours are spent in scheduling, keeping attendance, and the various other tasks.

It's been a busy, busy year for the Senior Class! Studying and the usual extra activities kept the students time well occupied, but extra special events began to happen in March. Seniors began making big decisions about the future--which college, what job. Everyone got pictures of senior friends as the future-grads exchanged name cards and pictures. Seniors were inducted into National Honor Society, and Court Day was held at Jefferson early in the spring. Later the annual battle between faculty and seniors took place on the basketball floor with both sides giving proper vent to emotions. Committees worked long and hard while carefully planning the Senior Dinner and Prom. The fore-thought was rewarded when the two events were deemed completely successful in the eyes of the 1960 graduates. The year ended with a highly memorable Baccalaureate service and the unforgettable formal Commencement Exercises. Seniors were proud of their diplomas and of the completion of their high school years, but many were also filled with a feeling of regret and sadness in leaving their Alma Mater----Jefferson High.

Margit

Margit Moehle, from Graz, Austria, knows that, "The pleasures and the experiences I received will be rewarding for the rest of my life." Margit pictured the school with high classrooms and iron bars over the windows and she found that "Jefferson was just the opposite". She found a lot to do besides studying by participating in choir concerts and attending the games and dances.

Margit's address is:

Sparbersbachgasse 59
Graz, Austria

Margit practices one of the many speeches she had to make by showing her American sister, Chris Greene, her country.

Mardy van den Berg, from Amsterdam, Holland, thinks, "It all was marvelous". She was kept busy by marching band, supporting our teams, participating in Concert Choir, and acting and helping in the plays and operetta. "I can't say what I liked best," said Mardy, "because everything was like a dream come true. I was proud to be a Jeffersonian."

Mardy's address is:

Bronckhorststraat 31
Amsterdam Z, Holland

Mardy

Mardy and her American sister, Marlene Johnson, are working on the Mardi Gras, one of the many activities Mardy helped with.

Service Students

Justi

Justi Calvo, from Barcelona, Spain, said, "I had already read about America and had dreamt, too, but my imagination was short in comparison with the reality." As for school life, it's "fantastic" to Justi. The first thing that impressed him was our sporting events, including the band, cheerleaders, and the "big gymnasium". He was also impressed by, and enjoyed, the confidence of the teachers. Justi's address is:

Avd. Jose Antonio 431
Barcelona, Spain

Justi learned about the band instruments, and even how to play some of them, like the marimba, from his American brother, Gene Wieneke.

Judy

Judy Shimek, who spent last summer in Helsinki, Finland, had a wonderful time. "It was an inspiring experience to visit a foreign country. I learned that the people are the most important part of the country and if you miss the chance of learning to understand them you've missed the best part."

Judy is relating some of her summer experiences to Miss Hrubesh and Miss Brink, the two teachers who help with the AFS program at JHS.

No honor conferred by the school excels that represented by the National Honor Society. It represents the fundamental objectives for which schools are instituted and gives recognition to those who have attained most nearly the desired ends. Other honors at the disposal of the school are only partial in the sense that they recognize specialized ability, skill, or talent; but this Society looks upon education as a total product measured by the four dimensions of life: Character, Service, Leadership, and Scholarship.

To be eligible for membership, candidates must have a scholastic average of three point or better, and must be members of the junior and senior classes. Names of those students qualifying are given to present Honor Society members and teachers to rate. The lists are then given to an Honor Society Committee, consisting of faculty advisors and the administrative staff, where the votes are interpreted and final decisions made.

Music and Dramatics

Jefferson Orchestra

The Jefferson Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Dallas Tjaden, had a very successful year. Their success can be noted in the fact that many of them were chosen to play in the All-State Orchestra. And as for being busy, just ask the "graying Mr. Tjaden."

Jefferson Concert Band

The biggest moments for any musical group come during an actual performance. This year was filled with many such moments for the members of the Jefferson Concert Band. Among these musical highlights were the annual Fall and Winter Concerts, the band tour in the spring, and of course the local and All-State contests.

Concert Choir

As I sit here, listening to the record of the 1959-1960 choir, it brings back lots of memories. We had our ups and downs as we sang our way through the year. With the reassuring hand of Mr. Torrence Carlson, we began to develop, right from the start. One never-to-be forgotten concert was that of Christmas, mixed with the joy of the Nutcracker Suite and the sacred beauty of the Tableau.

Then in early spring came the tour. It was only a two day tour, but never were two days so rewarding and full of fun. We headed home for a moment of rest; for at home "Oklahoma" was waiting for us. We sang our hearts out and played our parts, no matter how large or small they might have been.

Always remember graduation. We sang our last concert there. This was truly the climax and the end of a long, wonderful year. For the seniors it was, perhaps, a moment of anxiety; the choir needed them no more. For the underclassmen, it stood as a premonition of the future.

No, this is not a political rally.
It is the Jefferson Choir
on tour?

Girls Choir

Though subordinate to the Concert Choir, these two groups are equally enthusiastic and full of music.

Boys Choir

"... and Lady Isabel slowly expired as night fell."

"Sabrina Fair, listen where thou art sitting."

Highlights

Building a set; building a play; building a memory! The Thespians of JHS are always building something, whether it be a brick wall or a character.

But never underestimate our man behind the scenes. Only those who work with Mr. Robert Geuder know how he can start with nothing and produce a lasting, vivid memory through drama.

"...oh what a beautiful day."

The band was led through their routines by drum major, Dick Lehmann and drum majorette Judy Shimek. The majorettes are Lori Close, Sandy Vavra, Sylvia Osborne and Diane Newport

Football Highlights

Several members of the football squad received post season honors. Bob Schley, Herb Richards, Dick Dewald, Dick Winter, Hamode Hasson, and Jerry Straw were selected for the All City Team. Herb Richards was chosen for the Mississippi Valley Conference first team. Dick Winter landed a second team berth. Bob Schley received honorable mention.

Bob Schley, Herb Richards, and Jerry Straw received honorable mention on the Des Moines Register All State Team.

From the Iowa Daily Press Association, Herb Richards and Bob Schley received honorable mention to the IDPA State Team.

Hit! Push! Block!

This is indeed a rare picture. The entire football season was plagued by rain. Many times it was hard to distinguish between teams midway through the first period. Only once were we spared the inconvenience of rain. This was during the homecoming game against East Moline. The absence of rain on this occasion, along with the 13-7 victory, made the season complete.
