Things We Are . . .

JEFFERSON - a great sprawling monument of glass and stone set on a hill to honor a man; to crystallize an idea - this we are and more.

We are the Sahara winds of summer and the fierce wolf winds of winter, slashing at bare, red legs or moaning woefully at the windows.

We are a roof that shall not leak,

and squeeking desks,

and laughter echoing down the hall from some distant classroom.

We are calm blue waters churned to white froth by the assiduous splashing of polly-wog Doll-finn-ettes,

the faltering wavers of first speeches,

the glorious enthusiasm of some teachers,

and the caustic sarcasm of others. . .

We are books - fat and thin, dull and fascinating, new - with the newness only a book can have - chemistry, history, and The Catcher in the Rye.

We are the glow of curiosity bursting into the leaping flame of knowledge, the jubilant hope of pep assemblies . . . and screams of triumph turned into the too sudden quiet of defeat. (the visiting J-Hawks were defeated here by a waiting Warrior team)

We are a boy and girl
holding hands
all alone
in the crowded halls,

and names inscribed on desks tops to perpetuate a love affair that lasted a week.

We are the pride of an "A" . . .
and the cold chill
of a "D."

We are a Jewish girl, long dead.

We are Mr.
baton, the first
ture, and a curtain

and gifts from distant lands, and a river at flood time.

Carlson raising a strains of an over-going up.

We are queens,

We are the culmination of a hope and

the morning of a new generation.

From our ranks will come housewives,

shopkeepers,

scientists,

executives,

and doubtless there are those among us who will write their names across the stars.

We are initials scrawled on walls;
a first kiss,
beauty and ugliness,
hate,
fear,
bigotry,
lust,
and love.

We are one person and the whole world.

In truth, he who would know all the things we are must plumb the depths and chart the soaring heights of the human soul.

Gretchen Rupe -

"Jefferson High, high on a hill . . . "

This Was Homecoming 1963 . . .

Jefferson's 1963 Homecoming festivities began on a Thursday with a breakfast given by the cheerleaders for the seventeen Queen candidates, football team, and coaches (picture 1). Later that day the five Queen finalists were announced in a special pep assembly and escorted to a stage gaily decorated in Jefferson blue and white (2 and 3). Enthusiasm was heightened when the J-Hawks downed Dubuque 31 to 14 (4). Then, in anxious anticipation, the crowds watched as the five Queen finalists were brought onto the field in Corvet convertibles, and Student Council president Gary Wishniewsky crowned Barb Petsel Jefferson's 1963 Homecoming Queen (5, 6, 7, 8).

Crown-bearer and flower girl for the Homecoming festivities were Jeff and Kelly Murdock (page 13, picture 1). Following the crowning Gary then bestowed the traditional kiss, after which Barb found a few seconds to collect her thoughts and adjust her cape (2 and 3). The Queen and her court next assembled for one last picture before leaving the field. (4). The following evening, Jefferson students danced to the theme of "Blue Velvet." Here Barb was presented to the student body a second time and escorted to her throne (5 and 6). Then she and her escort, Jerry Spilman, were photographed dancing to the music of the Regents (7).

The close of the Homecoming dance marked the end of a very successful week-end, and one that will be remembered by many at Jefferson (8 and 9).

Queen Barbara Petsel

Barb entered Jefferson as a sophomore in the fall of 1961. As a tenth-grader, she served as a member of the Armstrong's Fashion Board. In her junior year she served as chairman of the board. Barb has been a member of Swin Club, Pep Club, and this year was secretary of the Jefferson Student Council and secretary of the Northeast District Student Council of Iowa. Her interests include horseback riding, tennis, swimming, and skiing.

We are those who hold the reins with firm but gentle hands and others, unsung, who feed education's fiery steed with endless reams of reports and great roles of scarlet tape.

We are sympathetic ears and storm calming words.

We are pragmatists and idealists; wit, smiling charm and taciturn sternness; selflessness and dedication.

We are the builders of bridges to the future-those who care.

Jefferson Students Owe Much of Their Success To A Fine Administration

Mr. W. L. Paxson, head administrator, has been responsible for much of the success at Jefferson. His efforts and support have aided in making our school what it is.

Mr. Paxson spent last summer in Europe, where he and his wife traveled with their son. They both were anxious, however, to return home to their work and to their gardening. Mr. Paxson is examining one of the many rose bushes that serve to add beauty to the Paxson home.

Seated in the Jefferson office are:
First row, L. to R.-Ruth Atkinson,
Attendance Clerk; Bernice
McDowell, Assistant Librarian;
Wanda Ribble, Switchboard Operator. Second row-Evelyn Wieneke, Bookkeeper; Elsie Conard, Receptionist; Maxine Cervený, Secretary.

HOWARD WILLIAMS

Mr. Williams, assistant principal, is in charge of school activities. His interest results in the outstanding support he gives to these activities. He and his family spent their Easter vacation in the South, where they enjoyed many hours of fishing.

are indeed fortunate in having such a fine disposal. For sophomores, counselors offer many academic subjects needed for graduation. Counseling an asset in deciding on fields of interest. Work-bound seniors consult counselors about school applications. The counselors also help with projects, and class projects, and show a genuine interest in Jefferson boys and girls.

Many of us were seniors this year.

For some it has been a goal finally reached - a pinnacle for which we strived.

But even as we look back at the months behind us, at the fun - and hard work, too, we must also look forward.

We must set new goals for ourselves now; goals which depend not only on what we are, but also on what we can become.

Seniors Await Graduation With Anticipation - and Anxiety

The graduating class at Jefferson numbered four hundred sixty this year. It was a class of artists and musicians, scholars and athletes. Included were boys and girls who bought tickets to a sell-out musical of the old South, invested their money in buses to a boys' state basketball championship game, and applauded those rewarded for their efforts in the classroom.

The class of 1964 was a group of young people thrown suddenly into the world of A.C.T., S.A.T., and College Board Exams; a group who looked about them and asked pitifully, "Where have all the years gone?" A class of eager young minds who realized it would be hard for those who followed to top this year, 1963 to 1964.

Early last fall, Jefferson seniors were surveyed, and they submitted their candidates for the following categories. The girl and boy receiving the most nominations in each category were selected.

Most Likely To Succeed: Cherly Reimer and Max Noll

Most Studious: Gretchen Rupe and Craig Cerney

Most Popular: Donna Owen and Dennis Fitzgerald

Done Most For The School: Judy Locke and Gary Wishniesky

Best Dressed: Liz Koehn and Ed Honzik

Most Friendly: Don Rajtora and Chloe Ann Stahle

Most Dramatic: Mike Robertson and Joanne Just

Most Creative: Mike Conner and Judy King

Most Humorous: Sue Spicer and Steve Herman

We are dewy-eyed shyness, the lostness of first day, then sudden assurance on the second.

We are envying of middleaged juniors and the belittling of youthful sophomores.

We are halls streaming with fresh faces and unmeasured talent - new seed to flower, at last into touchdowns and arias and laughing stage lovers in Jefferson's blossom-brimming garden.

Juniors Find It Their Duty To Uphold Fine Jefferson Traditions

No longer strangers to the building or its traditions, Jefferson juniors eagerly took their places as members of varsity teams and "varsity" organizations. Juniors helped to turn out a topnotch newspaper and to win a Mississippi Valley football title. Some of them participated in their first musical or play, while others were old hands at chess and cheerleading. For these extracurricular activities and those accomplishments in the classroom, the juniors were rewarded. The year, for most, was a time to move up toward the places the seniors were vacating, a time for taking the first of the college tests - P.S.A.T. and the National Merit Scholarship examination. In short, it was a time of looking both behind and ahead, and believing people when they told you the years pass quickly.

PREFORMING ARTS

We are the lead heavy lids of midnight rehearsal and the steadfast devotion of marching feet and horns blaring reveille to a lazy sun.

We are the bouncing dance of strings and the piercing ecstasies of flutes as they whirl in solo.

We are a diary come to life, the secret laughter of a Jew and the innocent loveliness of a Geisha; a dainty fairy's iced pirouettes and a sailor home from the sea.

We are Heaven-soaring hallelujahs that bring a school to its feet.

We are hearts united by the majestic song of an orchestra or by the stirring words of a voice vibrant with passion.

We are a wondrous enchantment that binds for one "brief, shining moment", worry and grief and pain so that man's soul can hear the stars crying.

Thomas Jefferson High School

The "Big 5" led the choir through an extremely successful year which included a spring tour to Chicago and the production of the Kern, Hammerstein musical, "Showboat." The Concert Choir officers are, from left to right: JoLynne Brown, secretary; Tom McMillen, Department manager; Judy Locke, vice-president; Mike Ernst, treasurer; and Dave Marshall, president.

A great deal of paper work also goes into the making of a choir as shown by Mr. Carlson's desk. The largest choir yet in the history of the school, this "varsity" organization boasted 81 members.

Concert Choir

Working closely with Mr. Carlson, Ward Jamison and Kay Johnson go over the most difficult pieces of music in preparation for the next concert. Both Kay and Ward also accompanied the choir during "Showboat."

The Jefferson Concert Choir in action. The choir has a wide repertoire including sacred music, spirituals, show tunes, and popular music.

Girls' Chorus Largest At Jefferson

One of the major backbones of the Jefferson Band is The Band Parents Association. This organization has worked to purchase band uniforms and other needs of a growing band. Some of the activities of the Band Parents are selling popcorn at basketball games, selling food and candy, and holding the annual Jefferson Band Carnival.

BAND OFFICERS

The band sells popcorn at basketball games to raise money for trips, uniforms, and other needs of a FIRST CHAIR BAND.

Holding your music is one problem for a band member on a windy night at a football game.

If you lived next door to Jefferson, you wouldn't need an alarm clock during the marching band season. Our band meets early each morning at 7:30. Along with the music you can hear shouts like: Have a line!, Catch my music, I didn't have any breakfast!

Miss C.R. Jefferson hosts E. Iowa Band Festival

Miss Cheryl Benesh, Jefferson senior was chosen by the band members to represent our city in the Eastern Iowa Band Festival. Her reign included a Queens breakfast, the parade, and the night finale at Kingston Stadium where the mass band of over 2,000 played an Armed Forces Day concert.

Students Choose Carnival Royalty

Representing the class of 1966 were John Meskimen and Polly Thorson.

Richard Mihal and Sue Pfiffner became holders of the royalty for the class of 1965.

King and Queen of the 1964 Band Carnival were Charlene Jones and Don Rajtora, members of the class of 1964. Crowning of the royalty was by Mr. Cedric Anderson.

Band Includes Trips in Its Season

Besides performing on its own stage and football field, the Jefferson band traveled to Davenport and other important football games. Both junior high schools enjoyed concerts given early in the spring. The band highlighted the year with a concert tour to the state capitol. At Des Moines West High School our band received a standing ovation by the student body. This proves out-of-town trips by school groups are worth the time and trouble.

Our students were proud to represent our school, community, and city throughout the state.

The Diary Of

Dear Diary, since you and I are going to be such great friends, I should start by telling you about myself and the others who were a part of my life. My father STEVE SHAFFER and mother VICKI KOUTNY, and sister Margot LANA SMITH, all helped me grow up and face the tragic life we lived in. The others who were in hiding with us were Mr. Van Daan JAN MALY, Mrs. Van Daan PAM GEIGER and their son Peter JIM NIEBUHR. Also a man we'd never met, Mr. Dussel MIKE ERNST, was brought to us by Miep ROSALIE RIMRODT and Mr. Kraler MIKE CONNER; our protectors, we called them.

"The boys came buzzing around like bees around a jam pot!"

"I lift up mine eyes unto the mountains from whence cometh my help."

"Mr. Otto Frank here! You're not in Switzerland then? People think you've....."

Anne Frank

"Did you hear that everyone? The invasion has begun....."

"There've always been people that've had to suffer.....sometimes one race.....sometimes another....."

In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.

Yours, Anne

The Jefferson Thespians presented the first Children's Theatre production for the Junior League of Cedar Rapids November 22 and 23. Based on a story by Hans Christian Anderson, the play concerns a cruel queen and her goblin elf who plot the kidnap of an earth-child in order to bring happiness to the queen's cold and desolate palace. In the picture above, the goblin, Acha (Steve Vosatka), spirits the boy, Kay (Roger Sahs), away from his home by the use of a magic mirror, as Kay's playmate Gerda (Karel Rosendahl) and Gerda's grandmother (Betty Keene) look on in horror.

"The Snow Queen and the Goblin"

THE SNOW QUEEN

Jealous of Kay and the other children he has kidnaped for the Queen, Acha puts the boys and girls under a spell in which they become frozen and doomed to pull the Queen's sled for ever. For his disobedience he is captured, in the picture at the right, by Whirlabout (Bill Cubbage) and Crystal (Mike Robertson), the palace guards, and brought before the angry Snow Queen (Carol Pratt).

Opens Children's Theatre Season

THE GOBLIN

The play, presented six times to over 5,000 children, was directed by Roger Meeker. Sets were designed by Robert Geuder. Student director and stage manager were Judy Locke and Bob Dickson, respectively.

In a frenzied search for Kay, above, Gerda find her way to the Snow Palace only to be frozen inside a block of ice by the wicked Acha.

All ends well, however, when the Goblin realizes he cannot receive love until he is good enough to deserve it, and the Snow Queen discovers Acha is really the only companion who can make her happy. The entire cast shown here for curtain call included: Cathy Farland, Jeanette Gaumon, Roger Sahs, Karel Rosendahl, Craig Roloff, Rick Adkins, Steve Vosatka, Carol Pratt, Scott Benson, Mike Robertson, Bill Cubbage, Carol Schrage, Terryl Van Dyke, Brooke Boyce, Kendra Hach, Suzanne Schuler, and Sue Conover.

The operetta concerns the love story of Johnny Dee (Gary Bowen) and Doris Davis (Sherry Murphy) who must be separated when Johnny is assigned duty aboard the ship, The Scarlet Sail.

"The Lowland Sea" Brings Folk Operetta to Jefferson Audiences

"The Lowland Sea" by Arnold Sundgaard and Alec Wilder was presented December 7 by the Jefferson boys' and girls' choirs under the direction of Torrence Carlson. The work done on scenery, designed by Mike Conner, and the various production crews, headed by the music students themselves, provided the boys and girls valuable experience for further musical productions.

Encouraged by Dorie's promise that she will wait for him, Johnny joins his crew mates in setting sail for Singapore.

Along with her neighbors, Dorie patiently awaits Johnny's return, bearing up courageously under the news that finally comes - The Scarlet Sail and all its occupants have been destroyed at sea.

Unaware that Johnny was not aboard the ship but in a hospital at the time of the sinking, Dorie finally consents to marry Nathaniel Hazard (Rick Adkins) and to become mother to his three children (Mary Ainsworth, Linda Slipson, and Jaren Evers). Dorie has acted too quickly, however, and, just as he promised, Johnny returns one day. Dorie realizes that she cannot leave Nathaniel nor the children even though she loves Johnny, and the young sailor must return to the only thing he knows, a life on the lowland sea.

One-Act Play Wins at State

When Mr. Robert L. Geuder took his one-act play, The Would-Be Gentleman, to the Iowa High School Speech Association finals, his cast of Jefferson students again showed Iowa who is best. The four-hundred dollar production not only won straight division one ratings, but also received five best actor awards, more than any other school. The play also received the Best Play award at our own J-Hawk Invitational.

The costumes were designed by Mr. Geuder, and they were accented by the monochromatic settings by Mr. Roger L. Meeker.

The major problem encountered in the production was that it had to be completely mobile, since the cast, sets, and costumes had to be transported in a school bus.

The Would-Be Gentleman was a condensed version of the five-act play of the same name by Moliere. At left is the Count Dorante (Steve Shaffer) trying to win the love of Dorimene (Vicki Koutney) by using the Jourdain's servant Nicole (Karel Rosendahl).

One of the show's high points is shown in the fight scene at the right. The judges were appreciative of the fine blocking, in which the dancing master (Steve Vosatka), fencing master (John Ransom), the tailor (Tom Meskimen) and the philosopher (Jeff Witt) all moved with the grace and dignity demanded for a Moliere production. Pictured below are Jefferson's five best actor awards recipients.

Christmas 1963 -

"Christmas is Giving" became the theme of the annual Jefferson Christmas Concert presented December 16 and 17 by the Concert Band, Choir, and Festival Chorus. Under the direction of R. Cedric Anderson and Torrence Carlson, the students presented a program of music, dance, song, and drama, narrated by Mr. Terry Ley, left, and in keeping with the idea that "in spite of a world torn by strife and infested with greed and hate may we find that most precious gift of all, God's Gift, through His Son Jesus Christ, of Peace and Good Will Among All Men."

The seventh annual program began with a choral adaptation of Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker Suite" presented by the Concert Choir and featured dancers, Brooke Boyce, Cathy Farland, and Mike Robertson, left. The story behind the music involves a little girl who receives a nutcracker for Christmas; a nutcracker who mysteriously turns into a handsome young prince and takes the little girl through a dreamland of dolls and fairies, dancers and flowers.

And again an audience of Cedar Rapids and Eastern Iowa residents were invited to "Come, ring the curtain up," when the Concert Choir performed "The Nutcracker Suite" a third time as part of their annual WMT television broadcast December 23, below, left.

The Concert Band under the direction of R. Cedric Anderson presented the second part of the show with a program of music portraying "The Sounds of Christmas," and featuring a troupe of dancing dolls, LeRoy Anderson's immortal "Sleigh Ride," and paintings and sketches done by students of the Jefferson art department.

- A Time of Giving

"One dollar and eighty-seven cents," begins O. Henry's famous story, "The Gift of the Magi," presented this year in pantomime by Jefferson music students. The play, narrated by Terry Ley, developed through the music of the Concert Choir under the direction of Torrence Carlson, above, and the recreation of the Christmas tableau, right. The story concerns a young married couple, Della and Jim (Carol Schrage and Jeff Witt pictured at left with Tom Prohaska, Doug Benedict, and Tom Blevins) who sell their most prized possessions in order to buy each other Christmas gifts. And even though they give up all that they own, we are reminded that, "Of all who give and receive gifts, such as these two are wisest. Everywhere they are wisest. They are the magi."

Most Certainly - "Christmas Is Giving"

With the help of the Concert Band and the entire Festival Chorus, the Jefferson Music Department was able to present over 800 gifts to the Salvation Army for distribution to needy families in the Cedar Rapids area. The Concert Choir Council, pictured around the presents are, left to right, Jack Welch, Gini Koutny, Mike Robertson, JoLynne Brown, Ward Jamison, Judy Locke, Dave Marshall, Charlene Jones, Cheryl Woods, Mary Secl, Tom McMillen, Maxine Johnson, Karel Rosendahl, Mike Ernst, and Kay Johnson.

"Send these orders out to Fisby right away."
Colonel Purdy (Jan Maly) explains the Okinowa assignment to Sargeant Gregovich (John Ransom).

"Sorry, boss, but old lady not go if goat not go, daughter not go if old lady not go . . ."

Sakini (Tom Miskimen), Colonel Purdy's Japanese interpreter, explains to Jan Maly and Captain Fisby (Mike Robertson) that the only way to get to Okinawa is to agree to take the mayor's daughter and her family.

"So glad U.S. Army come to Okinowa."

Mr. Oshira (Walt Hammill) and the Old Lady (Larua Cejka) welcome Sakini and Fisby to their island.

"Please to introduce "Teahouse" . . ."

"To create most beautiful scene as above with Jeanette Gaumon, Jane Benson, and Cassie Neal, it puts the strain and work upon many. While the light crew is out front, the stage crew scurrys about backstage waiting for their cues. Here Mike Conner waits to pull the curtain as Rosie Rimrodt listens for missed lines or mistakes on stage, always hoping for another charming performance."

"I, Sakini, am very big help to boss Fisby. I am one who orients him in Japanese customs - especially old tradition of having Geisha girl."

"Backstage we all take turns in helping to care for Paula the goat, who plays role of Lady Astor in show. Here we pose to have our picture taken for the newspaper people: Jeanette Gaumon, Mike Robertson, and I, as Paula nibbles on tree."

"Play become very sad when teahouse is torn down and Lotus Blossom have no place to practice being Geisha girl. She sad, too, because Captain Fisby must go back to U.S. and she very much in love with him."

"Even Captain McLean soorry to leave our earthworms, right, but everything turn out alright when teahouse rebuilt by orders of Congress."

"Show over now, and everyone gather round table for big strike party and food. There I am in straw hat, leaning over table for the pickles. Play very big success, of course. Big boss, Mr. Geuder, say whole cast and crew deserve lots to eat - so, pass Sakini bottle of Pepsi, please . . . May August Moon bring gentle sleep."

SHOWBOAT

"Showboat.....a fast tempo on Wicked Stage.....bring in chorus at letter C..... I'll have to write music for this spot..... could we use the alt os here?.....I'll try it in choir Friday....."

"Showboat....I think Captain Andy should be shorter t han Parthy.....I'd like to hear some girls on that Bill number.....that shipment of make-up should be here by Tuesday....."

"Showboat....t wo jogs will cover that....will the Chicago set go between the masking and....Those 5x8 flats can be covered after schoolMike's oleo has got to go up by Monday....looks like we'll work till 3:00 a.m. again t onite....."

"Dance rehearsal after school....Debbie can teach them that step....I'll give them their costume material then.....No, that wasn't right, do it again....Get Brooke to work up a new step for this place...."

"With over 300 costumes in this production, I'm glad I had a good costume crew...."

"For some this their first make-up, for others it may be the last.....smooth that no. 7 shadow.... Would y ou use a little more grey on your hair in that final scene?....."

"Cast in the little Theatre right now....no notes tonight, just give us a show like the last one...."
"Orchestra, slow down a little on Bill....watch the tempo in the opening scene.....just give us music like last night....."

"A 6 inch frenal on the front light batton....hang a Leko on stage right wing....tilt the floods down a bit.....I'll put area 3 on preset two...."

"Captain Andy, Captain Andy..."

"See The Showboat"

"What does he care if the worlds got trouble, What does he care if the land ain't free... Heart gets weary and sick of tryin', I'm tired of livin', and scared of dyin'"

"Colored folks work while the white folf play..."

"But when the curtains' down my life is pure...."

"I told you once to stay away from my wife...."

"If some gentleman would talk with reason, I would cancel all next season...."

"Got a couple of actors lookin' for a room...."

"Miss Magnolia, I always told ya...."

"Congratulations are in store for all....The last trip down the river of dreams is over....Let the tears fall, let not these magic moments be forgotten..."

"It takes a while to realize it has come to an end. . . And then to end with Jefferson High, Framed by the sky. . . ."

"Here there can be no sadness....all must come to an end...All must be forgotten...."

"A late rehearsal....The costume change....Tense moments....
Loud applause...The Showboat is over.
A torn program....Broken scenery....Lost friends....
A tear from all....Those who know, those who saw.
A fine tradition....This we leave....Carry on....
This was Showboat....This is Old Man River rolling along."

We are exotic banquets and Cinderella balls; amateur politicians who lock in fierce death debates over wigs and islands; silvery mermaids and generals whose battlefields are checkered.

We are scholars unearthing Rome's pillared splendor; cookie bakers and candy sellers; and the makers of news and its reporters.

We are Betty Crockers of the future and the vestal virgins who guard school spirit's sacred flame.

We are the graceful curves of the dance and words that strew the heart with fragrant garlands.

We are a generation working toward the distant gleam of tomorrow or just having fun in today's more certain presence.

The Future Teachers of America is a national organization designed to promote interest in the teaching field. During the past year members of the Jefferson chapter of the FTA invited speakers to discuss such topics as the advantages and disadvantages of a teaching career and the benefits of a teachers' organization. Coe College and the State University of Iowa hosted FTA members on Future Teachers' Day. The club raised money through bake sales for a visitation to the State College of Iowa.

The faculty sponsors of FTA are Miss McReynolds, Mr. Schwandt, Mr. Ley, and Mr. Godfrey. This year's officers were Cherryl Benesh, President; Jim Linkenback, Vice President; Mary Beth Terbl, Secretary; Tom McMillen, Treasurer; Chloe Ann Stahle, Historian; and Barry Boyd, Parliamentarian.

This year the Latin Club merged with the International Club. The purpose of the International Club is to promote closer relationships between American students and students from abroad, and to encourage a deeper understanding of our foreign neighbors. The club meets bi-monthly with business meetings held in the morning and programs in the evening. The Club hosts the annual Mardi Gras.

The National Thespian Society which is composed of more than two thousand troupes in the United States, and foreign countries, was established in 1929 at Fairmount, West Virginia. It was primarily organized for the purpose of advancing the standards of Dramatic Arts in the secondary schools. Our troupe, 561 began it's career at the old Roosevelt High School under the direction of Margrete Sheets. In 1957 the charter was transferred to the new Thomas Jefferson High School. The troupe presented it's first production "Our Town" under the direction of Mr. Laughterbach. In 1960 Mr. Robert L. Geuder became the sponsor of troupe 561. Since then our troupe has gained recognition as one of the finest high school theatre departments in the state. And with the outstanding directors, facilities, and talent, we will keep climbing the ladder to fame.

DOLL-FIN-NETTES -- This is the girl's swimming club, open to any girl at Jefferson. Each girl is tested and as a result is classified either as a Doll, a Fin, or a Nette. These groupings are for learning and developing skills in synchronized swimming which is one of the main objectives of the club. It is traditional for the club to back the varsity swimming team and to cooperate with them in presenting an aquatic show.

The library helpers are an essential part of Jefferson. The members of this group assist in the library. Without their help, the library could not offer the excellent service that it does for the student body.

DECA Member Kathy Hollingsworth and Mr. Norm Karl, chapter advisor, are shown here holding her 2nd place award at the National Leadership Conference for her manual on "Self-service variety stores." She also received a $400 scholarship from DECA to attend Ellsworth College and enter the Retail Management program.

DECA is the extra-curricular phase of Distributive Education. However, its purpose is educational as well as social. One phase of the DECA activities involves contests in which the students compete with one another on state and national levels. These contests are centered around the subject areas covered by each student in his local classroom. In this way, the classroom instruction is enhanced and the students are given an opportunity for state and national recognition in retailing and distribution. In the senior year the Distributive Education students become members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, or DECA. The DE students at Jefferson comprise a local school chapter. Each chapter elects its own student officers and the DE coordinator serves as Chapter advisor. The local DECA Chapter is the "show window" for student achievement and progress. Each year brings a new agenda of activities ranging from academic and civic projects to social functions.

The 1962 football season ended on a down note as Davenport Central beat the J-Hawks at Central 27-18 to take away an undefeated season, the conference championship and the state championship.

Twenty-two seniors graduated from the 1962 squad and most of them were boys who did most of the playing. Returning were Bill Salat, regular offensive tackle; Doug Stolba, the regular offensive center; and Dennis Fitzgerald, regular defensive tackle. With only these regulars returning, the J-Hawks were prepared for a rebuilding year. But the seniors believed that they could make it more than a rebuilding year if they could get some needed help from some juniors.

The help came, and the team jelled into a fine J-Hawk team and became the first Jeff team to win the conference championship. The team had great poise and determination, and had the Espre de Corps which marked them as one playing for the good of all. There were many individual standout performers on this team, but the 1963 J-Hawks squad will always be remembered as a great SQUAD, instead of a group of great individuals. Many lessons were learned and many honors were received. May the team wear these honors proudly and serve as an incentive for the future J-Hawk elevens, who can win if they give a 110% team effort.

These men put in many hours - seven days a week - in order for the J-Hawks to be a winner. They were devoted, loyal and hardworking, and deserve to be named Staff of the Year.

Moline

The J-Hawks traveled to Moline to open the season. With only two regular offensive players returning from the 1962 team, the J-Hawks were unknown quantity. Jefferson responded and left no doubt that they had the makeup of a good solid team. They dominated the game and beat Moline, 20-7. Dennis Fitzgerald rushed over 100 yards and Don Rajtora connected on passes to Mark Noll in key situations to rout Moline. Moline's only score came on a 55 yard pass interception, and they never threatened again. Jeff's line held Moline to only 72 yards rushing for the game.

To open the home season, the J-Hawks entertained the Panthers of MT. PLEASANT. The game was a big defensive battle until late in the third quarter. Jeff decided to try for a first down on fourth down and a yard to go. The gamble failed on their 38 yard line, and two plays later, Mt. Pleasant scored on a 35 yard pass.

Even though the J-Hawks out-rushed their opponents, they were shut out for the first time in three seasons. A fumble on the Mt. Pleasant 14 yard line was the only scoring threat that the J-Hawks could muster against the Panthers.

Jefferson traveled to WEST DAVENPORT where they were dealt their second straight loss of the year. West's all-state back compiled 100 yards rushing and scored their only touch down in the first half.

In the second half, the J-Hawks dominated play and held West to only one first down. Jeff's only score was a 33 yard pass from Rajtora to Harrison. With three minutes to go in the game the J-Hawks had a chance to tie the score 7-7, but a mixup occurred on the extra point attempt. West scored another TD to ice the game. However, Jeff's defense came of age in this game. From this game on, the J-Hawks team went undefeated and won the title. This game was the turning point of the season.

Individual Honors

Don Rajtora set a record in total yards gained in rushing for one season. Don carried 43 times for 100 yards plus 624 passing, a total of 724 yards. Don also set a season record by completing 54 of 105 passes for 624 yards (another season record in total yards gained by passing). Don was on second team all-state and first team all city.

Tom Harrison set a 1963 season record in passes caught for greatest total yards in one season by catching 18 passes for a total of 229 yards.

Ed Pulda set a record in kickoffs for one season. Ed kicked 34 times, totaling 1749 yards for an average of 51 yards per kickoff.

Dennis Doyle set a game record by recovering 3 fumbles, and a season's record by recovering a total of 6 fumbles for the year.

Members of the first team all-city included center, Doug Stolba; pulling guard and defensive specialist, Dave Peters; and tackle Bob Dostal.

Jefferson Rallies to Overcome Wash.

The weather was near perfect as the traditional game was played in Kingston Stadium. A crowd of 12,000 witnessed a 10-0 start by the Warriors, and this was the score end of the first quarter. This was the only time that the Warriors penetrated beyond the mid-field stripe. In the second quarter, Jeff threatened twice, but passes were dropped and Wash lead at halftime, 10-0.

The third quarter saw the two teams play defensive ball with Dave Peters doing a great job as middle-linebacker. The J-Hawks still trailed 10-0 going into the 4th stanza. On the first play of the final quarter, Rajtora hit Tom Harrison on a 35 yard pass to set up the first J-Hawk tally. Dennis Fitzgerald carried it in and Rajtora passed to Gorsh to make it 10-7 with 11 minutes to go. Bob Fulton intercepted a pass and returned it to the Washington 30 yard line. In 7 plays, the J-Hawks took the lead as Rajtora sneaked for the TD. Norris convereted and Jeff led 13-10 with 4 minutes remaining. The J-Hawks then pushed Wash back to the 14, and on 4th down, a desperation pass failed, and the J-Hawks took over on the 14 with 2 minutes to go. In three plays, Fitzgerald scored again to ice the game at 20-10.

Bill Salat holds down left end as the Warriors are pushed back three yards from their own forty. This stand by the J-Hawks ended Washington's faint hope for victory.

Dubuque

Jeff started slowly against a good Dubuque team, lead by their fast quarterback, and trailed 7-6 at halftime. Gorsh scored the only touchdown. Don Rajtora found Tom Harrison on a 35 yard TD pass to put the J-Hawks in front to start the third quarter. The lead was quickly lost by a 97 yard kickoff return by Dubuque. On the second play after the kickoff return, Rajtora again hit Harrison for a 75 yard scoring pass to put the J-Hawks in front to stay. Harrison scored his third TD of the night on a short dive play and Dave Peters high-lighted his season by picking off a fumble in the air and scampering 18 yards for a score. It was a successful Homecoming victory and the crowd of over 9,000 thoroughly enjoyed the game.

East Moline

East Moline came to town and the J-Hawks struck early and deadly to post their most impressive win of the year. Dennis Fitzgerald scored in the first quarter on a 13 yard romp. Early in the second quarter, Fitzgerald again scored on a short plunge. With two minutes showing on the clock before intermission, Tom Harrison sent the J-Hawks in front by a 20-0 score on an eight yard scamp. In the third quarter, Jim Gorsh scored from 3 yards out to increase the lead to 27-0. Early in the final quarter, Rajtora notched the fifth TD on a Quarterback sneak to end the J-Hawk scoring for the night. East Moline got a late score on a pass. The Jeff defensive line, lead by Dostal, Langham, Clyde, Carpenter, Peters, Murray, and Wilhelm, held the Panthers to 47 yards rushing.

Iowa City

Jeff turned up for the big game at Cedar Rapids against Central by downing Iowa City on their own field for the first time in Jeff's history. The Jeff defense was great and held Iowa City to only 46 yards for the first half. Jeff struck fast and scored the first time they had the ball by marching 78 yards. Fitzgerald carried it across for the score. In the second quarter, Fitzgerald scored again and Harrison added the third TD for a 21-0 halftime lead as Jim Norris kicked three extra points. In the second half, Iowa City tightened up their defense and Jeff went scoreless despite numerous threats. Bob Fulton intercepted an Iowa City aerial and streaked for a sure TD, but fumbled as the last Iowa City defender made a great attempt to tackle Fulton and got a hand on the ball.

Jeff Wins MVC over Central

A year had passed, but the J-Hawks had not forgotten the sting of defeat that Central had brought to the J-Hawks the last time they had met. Last year at Brady Street Stadium in Davenport, the proud J-Hawks saw a 15-game winning streak, the conference title and possible state title go down the drain as Central won by a 27-18 score. But the shoe was on the other foot as the Blue Devils, ranked #1 in the state, came to Kingston Stadium for a rematch. The conference title was on the line as each team had lost one conference game.

The J-Hawks were ready and they dominated the game as Davenport only ventured into J-Hawks territory three times all night. Jeff's defense was tremendous as Dostal, Noll, Salat, Murray, Peters, Long, Doyle, Langham, Wilhelm, Fitzgerald, Fulton, Harrison, Gorsch, and Sievertsen all turned in super performances. Jeff got its first tally by intercepting a short pass, which was tipped by Dostal into the hand of Fitzgerald, who took it in for the TD from 8 yards out. The second Fitzgerald TD came after a sustained 60 yard drive early in the third quarter. Another drive deep into Central territory was stymied by a holding penalty. With an all-important tackle by Sievertson, Central's drive was stopped on the 7 yard line with 2 minutes remaining on the clock. The determined J-Hawks pushed them back and great tackles by Murray, Dostal, and Fitzgerald and great pass defense by Long, Gorsch, and Wilhelm kept the Blue Devils Scoreless.

The victory gave the J-Hawks the Mississippi Valley Conference title and a number 4 ranking in the state. The J-Hawks were a tremendous team.

Defensive play highlighted Jeff's Season.

Undeafeated Conference Champions

The 1963-64 sophomore team was one of the most remarkable in the history of Jefferson. They began the season with thirty members and had by the close of the season a regular playing squad of twenty-five. If coaches Sauerbry and Allen had any discouraging thoughts, they didn't keep them long. Among these twenty-five were the best freshman players ever to move into high school in three years. With handed-down equipment and, at times, barely enough to scrimmage, the sophomores moulded into a tight group of superb athletes. In every game they played, group action dominated; this was a team, not a squad of individual heroes. This was Jeff's first perfect season for Soph football. Steve Zobach, leading ground gainer and scorer; most improved, Don Taylor.

Varsity Basketball

Claimed by many to be the coach of the year, coach Gay Dawn reflected the sharpness of mind, spirit, and word which is the true fashion of a great coach. His fiery action in the locker room at half time could be associated with the hard driving football coach. But, the transfer of his spirit into the players gave them the alertness and poise of champions. They came through many games on his energy alone. When the bottom seemed close and the team lacked in drive the coach had to forget his weariness and be the first to come roaring back. After an unsure start in the J-Hawk basketball season, Jefferson fans observed more than once this persistent atmosphere of liveliness and action about the J-Hawks, win or lose.

The foresight and keenness of coach Dawn reached its ultimate goal in Des Moines. Coach Gay Dawn made history by completing a perfect tournament run upon capturing Second in the State Basketball tournament. Keeping his traditional style as a perpetual contender, Coach Dawn certainly has developed only the first of his championship teams.

The J-Hawks started out the season with a win over Washington, Iowa. This was a non-conference opener that presented Jeff with room for improvement but overcame them for this game. Jeff then ran into two tough Mississippi Valley opponents in Davenport West and Moline. After a disappointing loss to Moline, they bounced back against Davenport Central to set a team scoring record of 80 points.

It was during the next week that big Dick Mullin cut his finger severely in a shop accident. Dick's accident served as an inspiration to the rest of the team. They came through with a valiant effort against East Moline, but couldn't hold on after three of the starters were whistled to the sidelines for committing five fouls.

After close losses to Washington and Clinton, the J-Hawks traveled to Iowa City for another thriller. The score was tied seven times. At the end of regulation play the score was tied at 50-50. During the next three minutes the J-Hawks out-scored 8-5 to leave the final score at 58-55 in Iowa City's favor.

After a tough win over Dubuque, the team took a break from Mississippi Valley competition. Against Marion the team set another scoring record of 91 points. Our bubble was again burst against Rock Island. In fact, things seemed to hit rock bottom in our next game against Moline. The next night the boys defeated Davenport Central for the second time this season. The next game was lost to East Moline and it turned out to be the last loss in regular season play.

Dick Mullin is shown tossing in a sweeping hook shot against Central Davenport early in the year, while Dave Karasek and Jim Broussard battle for rebound position. "Moon" had a fine fourteen point performance against the Blue Devils.

Gene Miller leaps high to bang in a one-handed low-trajectory, jump shot against Moline's all-conference forward, Steve Kuberski. Miller's scorching jump-shot was an awesome weapon all year.

The next game was the first round of district tournament play. Facing Marion again and this time they proved to be somewhat tougher than before. It was during this game that Al Jenkins set an individual scoring record by dumping in 32 points.

The next game, the district semi-final, was a jinx-breaker. The whole team played an inspired game as Jeff squeaked past Regis for the first time in the school's history. Up to this time, this probably was the sweetest victory ever for the J-Hawks, but it was only the beginning of bigger and better things for the J-Hawk cagers.

Next Jeff met a very determined, high-spirited Washington squad. Facing a 22 point barrage by the Warrior's Sam Senti, the J-Hawks used balanced scoring to take the rubber game of the three game series and take the school's first district basketball championship.

Al Jenkins floats high over an unidentified Iowa City player in a real squeaker over Iowa City in the first round of substate action. Sorry, Gene, but the ball went in.

The sub-state was next and the first game against Iowa City proved to be another thriller. Led by Al Jenkins' 22 and Bill Salat's 20 points, Jeff managed to put down a spirited rally by the Little Hawks.

After much worry and excitement, Jeff found time to relax during the Ottuma Walsh sub-state final game. With fine balanced scoring and a savage defense, the team rolled over the highly rated Gaels 67 to 37. This victory earned the J-Hawks their first trip to Des Moines and a chance to play in the state tournament.

The community honored the J-Hawks at the Municipal Coliseum.

One of the most tense moments in basketball is the tip. The previous tie-up by Jenkins stymied an eight point streak by the Warriors and cost them possession of the ball. The tip was controlled by Karasek and feed to Mark Noll underneath for two points.

Washington

It looks all too easy, Bill Salat puts elegance into a lay up. The girls liked Bill's style but, Washington didn't, as Bill smoothly poured in twenty-six points to send the Warriors back to their teepees in defeat.

Second In

Ten legs and five bodies are goaded to action by Jefferson's fiery head coach, Gay Dahn. The J-Hawks needed just a bit more fire in the last game as Newton edged them 44-39.

From this time on things became extremely tough. After a ten day layoff, Jeff headed for Des Moines where they made their headquarters at the Kirkwood Hotel. Their first opponent was Sioux City Central. With the help of several scouting reports and the 17 points by Bill Salat, Jeff finally came out on top and assured themselves of no worse than fourth place.

Next came highly rated Algona. The only scouting reports available were those obtained from the previous night's game. Since Jeff had to play the next night, they didn't have any time to practice, so the team utilized two chalk talks to figure out what strategy they were going to use. With only this to go on, Jeff took on the Algona five. Several boys got into foul trouble during the course of the evening. By overcoming foul trouble the team went on to a fast finish and won by ten points.

rebound in the State finals against Algona.

Finish

The final game was played on Saturday night to determine the champions for this season. All the boys put out 100% but just couldn't seem to overcome Newton's ferocious defense. Although it was a bitter defeat, the J-Hawks took it with chins up, representing Jefferson as true gentlemen.

After a rather quiet night at the hotel, Jeff departed for Cedar Rapids on Sunday morning. It had been announced that the J-Hawks would be met by caravan to escort them back home. Most of the team really didn't expect too much, but they were met by the greatest caravan in Cedar Rapids' history. It lightened the hearts of the players and coaches and it was a fitting climax to a terrific week end for Jefferson and all its J-Hawks.

State

Against the finest individual Jefferson faced in the whole tournament, Denny Smith of Sioux City, Bill Salat is shown dropping in one of his patented hooks. "Curly, burly, Bill" had the amazing faculty to astound the fans and, to a greater degree, his own teammates with his sweeping hooks.

Dick Mullin's shooting was an important asset in defeating Algona during the tournament grind.

Sophomores

The sophomores this year had the most stable list of wins ever recorded at Jeff. After a slow start with conference losses to West and Moline, the team went on to win eight straight games. Their most glorious triumph came when they easily rolled over the Washington Warriors 56-45. Going on, they lost only four more games and ended the season by smashing Dubuque 75-45, thus compiling a record of twelve wins and six losses.

Bob Sample, team captain and M.V.C. scoring leader had a seasons total of 407 points and 212 rebounds. Bob was 100% team leader and was in on every play that developed during a game. No one hesitated to give Bob the ball when they had the chance. It was a sure score. Sample's jump shot was deadly and he seldom missed. As a future prospect, Bob Sample presents the brightest hope the team can lean upon. There is no doubt that he will be one of the greatest basketball stars Jefferson has produced.

BILL SOMMERS was the strongest link in Jefferson's chain of champions. Bill set a precedent when he pinned Newton's heavy-weight in 32 seconds. He ended the year with a 15-4-0 record.

BILL SCHWARTZ was the greatest individual team leader on this year's squad. Bill dazzled his opponents with cat-like and cunning moves. He earned the reputation as Jeff's smartest wrestler. Bill recorded a 19-3-0 record.

With hard summer work, DENNIS GUNDER made good his goal to wrestle varsity. His 9-8-2 record added the final glory to his hard work. This was his first trip to the state tournament at Waterloo.

Don Berger was one of the most dependable wrestlers the J-Hawks had. Don was a good leader in team spirit and had a 15-2-1 record. Don proved to be a valuable asset.

Russ Tesar was the most improved J-Hawks wrestler this season. Battling a size and weight disadvantage in every meet, Russ came through with strength and poise. Going from 133 to a regular 145, Russ came out with an impressive 7-2-2 record.

Dick Mihal is one of the best all-around wrestlers that has ever come through Jefferson. Dick was the surprise of the season when at the state meet he took second to two-time state champion, Dale Anderson. With 19-3-1 record this year, it is hopeful that Dick will provide Jefferson with another state champion in the future.

Ray Pena started the season with little experience as a varsity wrestler. Ray had the responsibility of cutting weight and building himself up to fill in at the tough 103 spot. By the end of the season, Ray was one of the toughest wrestlers and ended with a 10-4-1 record.

Dick Forcht was a mainstay of the Jefferson track team. His constant energy kept the relay teams as perpetual contenders.

David and Strauss Set

Co-captain, Ron David, had individual records in the 50 yard Freestyle: time- 22.7 seconds, and the 100 yard Freestyle: time- 51.5 Ron was also a member of the Medley Relay Team and the Freestyle Relay Team.

The 1963-64 Jefferson swimming team was undoubtedly the best in the schools history. New team records were set in every swimming event. Co-captain, Al Benning, set the pace for the season by lowering his own school record in the butterfly. The record smashing continued through the dual meet season, but the climax came in the championship meets. Steve Strauss and Co-captain, Ron David, set records in the individual medley and 50 yard freestyle, respectively, as they won the conference, district, and state championship. Pat Fowler thrilled all the spectators at the conference meet by easily outdistancing his rivals enroute to a record in the 400 yard freestyle. Al Benning churned a record time in the 400 in the district meet.

In compiling a dual meet mark of 9 wins and 4 losses, the J-Hawks dealt Rock Island a 50-45 loss in what was probably the outstanding team effort. A fingertouch separated the Westsiders from breaking the Washington jinx. Steve Strauss's brilliant anchor leg was not enough to keep Wash from breaking the 44-44 tie that existed before the final event.

In May, it was announced, that Steve Strauss, a junior, had been selected to the All-American High School Swimming Team, for his conference record breaking mark in the individual medley. He is coach Brockway's third All-American.

Co-captain, Al Benning, was outstanding in his event, the Butterfly. Bettering his own mark more than once, Al established a solid school record of 56.6 seconds. Al, also, was a member of the Medley Relay Team.

Junior John Roberts and Senior Pat Fowler are set to take a practice run of the 400 yard Free. Fowler spent his last year on the Swim Team performing like a champion. Pat's outstanding individual effort came when he swam his record breaking 400 Freestyle in the time of 4 minutes and 21.6 seconds.

J-Hawks In State

Many anxious moments were spent waiting for good weather in order that the team could practice outdoors. However, the first few games had to be cancelled because of poor weather conditions. After a rather slow start, the team steadily improved. By sectional tournament time, the team was ready to begin the long grind to gain a birth in the state finals. With some help from the weatherman, the J-Hawks found themselves in Sub-State.

The first round opponent was Davenport Central who had previously handed the team two sound defeats. However, Jefferson was not to be denied another chance for a trip to a state tournament. Having defeated Central, the team went on to win the Sub-State and the chance to meet West Waterloo in the first round of the State Tournament. This game was one of the finest games the team played during the year. In two extra innings, Jeff went down to defeat by the score of 2-1. It was another successful season and proved once again that Jefferson is a home of champions. The season's record was 15 - 8.

Season's Record

The varsity tennis team compiled an eight and five record. This record was good for fourth place in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Some of the highlights of the year included a tie with Washington for first place in a quadrangular meet; and, winning the district doubles title. This doubles team, consisting of Jim Wing and Tim Richeson, went on to win the State Doubles Championship for the 1963-1964 school year. The junior varsity ended the year with a 3-2 record.

Delawar B. Fuad, Jaouilia-Zahrawy Street, Aleyzo, Syria. This address belongs to one of Jefferson's A.F.S. students this past school year. Del spent the year with Chuck Collins, his American brother. Having a fine command of English, Del had little trouble making many lasting friendships. In his final speech on class day, Del challenged the student body and faculty to remain a "great" school. His fine sense of humor, alert mind and continual drive kept Del very busy during the school year.

Mr. Robert Geuder helps Del tape a speech. Speech was an important course in Del's education at Jeff.

Jack Welch and his A.F.S. brother take time out to listen to some records. Georgio seemed to appreciate music; he was a member of Concert Choir.

Georgio Ronchi, via 24 Aprile 1, Gavirate (Varese), Italy. Anyone who came into contact with Georgio was in for a delightful experience. His extremely sharp wit seemed to be his greatest asset. A fine student, Georgio enjoyed every moment of his stay. All of his classes benefited greatly from his opinions, as well as his interesting antics.

Magic Moments!

JUNIOR PROM - 1964

The cafeteria was the setting for the Junior Prom held April 17. The theme of the prom was "The Splendor of Spring." Decorations consisted of Japanese lanterns and other drawings which related to the theme. Music for the evening was provided by the great Earl Miller and the Intruders. Other entertainment was provided by a hootenanny group which consisted of Mark Meyer, Terry Hollister, John McMillen, Gary Egger, Dennis Gladwin, and Jim Niebuhr. Members of the Junior Class and their dates enjoyed an evening of dancing.

COMMENCEMENT - 1964

Approximately 474 Jefferson seniors took part in commencement exercises Friday, June 5, at 8 p.m. at Kingston Stadium. The ceremony was a combined session with seniors from Washington High School also participating. The Rev. E. Koberg of the Trinity Lutheran church gave the invocation. The benediction, given by Dr. John Walker, Chaplain at Coe College, brought the 1964 graduation ceremonies to an end.

Dr. Arnold Salisbury, superintendent of the Cedar Rapids Community school system, was the main speaker at the graduation ceremonies. The title of his address was "Your Assignment for Tomorrow."

Jefferson and Washington choirs combined at commencement to sing "Onward Ye Peoples" and "O Clap Your Hands." Mr. Carlson, Jefferson choir director, directed the combined choir, while Ward Jamison accompanied on Jefferson's organ.
