Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Ken Stewart, a member of the Class of 1965, died the night of May 18, sixteen days before graduation. A member of Jefferson's 1964 state championship football team, Ken was chosen as a member of the All-City football team and was selected to the IDPA All-State football squad. Known to his fellow classmates for his determination and enthusiasm, Ken will long be remembered as a fine student. Head football coach, Ted Lawrence, said of Ken, "He was a true J-Hawk." The yearbook staff proudly dedicates this VIII volume of the Statesman to the memory of Ken Stewart.

The Memory Of These Days

Cedar Rapids Jefferson — the set where time and place were melded in a drama where we played our parts upon life's stage — never shall we forget the memories of these days.

the memories that bless and burn — the impulse that quickens the probing intellect, that illumines the dearest prize a breath beyond our grasp...

the tortoise pacing through the intricacies of higher math and French III and analytical chemistry equations;

the safe--cloth-bound and sealed against the dust of time--perpetuating our cultural heritage and the accumulated wisdom of all ages;

the mystic chord of eternity, nebulous and elusive, but leaping to life flame-tipped and brilliant when nudged by genius;

the homespun, chuckling memories that will reverberate wherever there are two Jeff grads to share them — the tightly-wound precision of a human spring--poised, tense, programed perfection --disintegrating into 1,800 individual parts at 3:10;

the steely grip of authority in a situation where a sagging shirt flies at half-mast;

the metallic ring of steel on steel;
the rhymic slap-slush of mortar against brick;

the big yellow and black beetles, daily transporting and discharging their grist for the educational mill;

the asmatic sputter of a Chevrolet, dripping oil and spasmodically emitting anemic puffs of smoke, stubbornly balking on a raw February morning;

the poster-plastering enthusiasm of local politicians;

the memories that warm the heart and make these years the keystone, — the threshold where immaturity gave place to self-understanding — the supreme sacrifice of a dedicated faculty in drumming up pep and loyalty;

the implacable anonymity of the IBM card, doling out its modicum of "A's" and "B's" but spewing forth abundantly in the lower register;

Anybody got a match?

those intense souls who took literally the injunction "Love one another";

Memories of victory, fiery-spangled and exultant...

of fabulous firsts...

of the suave seal-sleek perfection of a swooping dive and the splashing foam-flecked wake that streams salute to a racing champion.

Memories of eyes a wink away from tears...

Memories of struggle, trust, and triumph.

Linda Dierks Reigns Over Homecoming Festivities

October sixth marked the beginning of Homecoming '64, as fifteen excited girls became candidates for queen. The cheerleaders gave the annual breakfast for the football team and candidates. Enthusiasm grew as a traditional car smash was held.

The chosen few were announced in an assembly October ninth. Tension mounted during the game as the J-Hawks remained number one in the Mississippi Valley.

So ends the flurry of events signifying Homecom-

The five coveted chairs

fade as the autumn leaves.

Faculty And Curriculum

Administrators Direct School Activities

W. L. Paxson, Head Administrator

In addition to the many duties Mr. Paxson has to do to keep a school the size of Jefferson running smoothly, he finds time to work with various organizations and enjoy some hobbies.

Mr. Paxson is a past president of the Cedar Rapids Kiwanas Club and past president of the Principals and Supervisors in this school system. He has been a member of both the Iowa and National Associations of Secondary Principles for 30 years. Mr. Paxson has also been named a life member of the N.E.A. (National Education Association) of which he has been a member for 15 years.

Though his favorite hobbies are reading, golf, and hunting, Mr. Paxson said it seems like he is golfing more and hunting less lately.

Mr. Paxson received his B.A. from Parsons College and his M.A. for the State University of Iowa.

Mr. Howard Williams, assistant principal, is in charge of school activities. He came to Jefferson when it opened in 1957 from Wilson. He received his B.A. at William Penn College and his M.S. at Drake University.

Mr. Donald Nau, assistant principal, is in charge of student discipline and registrar. Mr. Nau came to Jefferson from Marion in 1957. He will leave Jefferson next year to become principal at McKinley Junior High School. He received his B.A. at SUI and his M.A. at SUI.

Counselors Advise Students

Mr. Richard Downs, junior, senior counselor, received his B.A. at SCI and his M.A. at SUL.

Miss Helen Masha, junior counselor, received her B.A. at Coe, her B.M. at Coe, and her M.A. at SUL.

Mr. Harold Myron, sophomore counselor, received his B.A. at North Dakota State and his M.A. at SUL.

Mr. Robert Thompson, senior counselor, received his B.A. at Coe and his M.A. at SUL.

The counseling staff at Jefferson greatly assists the students with many decisions and activities. The sophomore counselors offer help in choosing the necessary academic subjects needed for graduation. For juniors, the counselors offer their advice on decisions concerning fields of interest. College and work-bound seniors consult counselors about school applications and job opportunities. The counselors also help students plan proms, dinners, and class projects.

At left volunteer office helpers Sue White and Merle Robinson work before a background of the many folders providing information on various careers and colleges.

American Heritage students John Ransom, Kris Vittengl, Cathy Harper, and Larry Miller are in a group discussion, one of the many devices used to stimulate student participation and expression of ideas.

In the next year there will be many revisions in the social studies department. World geography will not be offered, world history will become world culture, and U.S. history will be American studies.

Comparative government was tried out as a pilot course in one government class and it will be extended to more classes next year.

The proposed curriculum revision is centered around human behavior and how history applies to all people. In other words, "Study the present in perspective of the past and study the past in the light of the present."

Literature And Writing Stressed In English

The English department continued this year with a program started in 1964 consisting of seven areas of study. Among the seven divisions were free reading, mass media, dialects, and thematic units.

Fame came to the department on May 31, when Mrs. Marjorie Shackford raced a student, Keith Andrews, class of 1966, into town on a bicycle bearing a sign on her back that read class of 1908. Although she made a valiant effort, Keith rode circles around her as she pushed her bicycle up the many hills.

New teachers in the department were Louise Garry, Evelyn Heden, Pat McConville, and Barbara Wicks.

More Emphasis On Math As Interest Grows

Dean Reifemstahl applies himself to an Algebra problem. As with many other studies, mathematics is a highly individual course.

Mathematics has been under-going progressive changes in the past three years according to Jefferson's mathematics instructors.

There is now math to suit the whole student body. Since one year of mathematics is required, students are offered everything from refresher arithmetic to senior mathematics.

Mrs. Jacobson will leave Jefferson to join the math department at the new Harding junior high school. Geometry and algebra instructor, Mr. Lockwood will also leave to attend the University of Illinois.

Gym Class Keep Students Physically Fit

The physical education department instituted a new rotation program in 1964. The program involved a rotation of gym days every nine weeks thus providing all students with equal physical education hours.

Activities in the fall ranged from field hockey and soccer for the girls to football and swimming for the boys. Winter classes concentrated on basketball and gymnastics with a shift to softball, tennis, and bowling in the spring.

New teachers in the department were Jalaa McNeal and Kaye Dennis.

Business Courses Train Students

Typing classes stress concentration and accuracy while preparing students for occupations and college.

The Business department instituted a new course this year with the aid of not only the instructors but of those interested students who were willing to attend classes starting at 7 a.m. The course was a clerical orientation work experience program centered around key-punching and data processing.

Industrial Arts Develops Students Skills

Boys in the woodworking shop have a variety of tools and equipment to work on special projects during the year.

Metal work students also have a well equipped machine shop. In the foreground one Jefferson student is working with a lathe.

The purpose of Jefferson's industrial courses is to prepare students for engineering courses in college or to prepare them for jobs in industry.

Next year industrial arts will begin training similar to the distributive education program. Seniors who show a decided interest in an industrial arts field will go to school until lunch then work from 1-3:30 to receive further training in trades and industry.

The industrial arts course at Jefferson includes metal work, woodworking, machine shop, auto mechanics, printing, industrial drawing and electronics.

A new program was begun by the Kiwanis' Club of Cedar Rapids to honor outstanding students of industrial arts in the city. Fourteen boys from Jefferson won awards.

Concerts, tours, the winter carnival, 22 first-place state band winners, and the Eastern Iowa Bandfestival have more than filled Mr. R.C. Anderson's final year teaching band and orchestra at Jefferson. Next year he will teach at the new Taft Junior High and Mr. Lumir Colton, instructor at Roosevelt Junior High will assume instrumental music duties.

Vocal music, under Mr. Torrence Carlson's energetic direction, produced another outstanding concert choir plus the boys and girls choruses. Chocolate bar sales helped finance the choir trip to Minneapolis.

The flag bearing girls color guard led the Jefferson marching band on field at Kingston Stadium during half-time ceremonies for all of the J-Hawk home football games.

Practice makes perfect and all Jefferson band and orchestra students try to work as conscientiously as Joe Myers on the drums. The result seems to be shown in a fine music department every year.

Through out the year all Jefferson students had an excellent chance to see the art work produced in and around room 207. Students were challenged to guess book titles from crayola drawings and keep up to date on art projects via displays by the art room. During the presentation of "Guys and Dolls" there were scenes sketched from the musical above the auditorium doors.

Miss Blanca Lippisch was a part-time addition to the art department routine of ceramics, basic art, and advanced art. Mr. Thompson is hoping to add art history to the course selection in the future.

Office Assistants

Last year a new program was initiated concerning passes to leave study hall. Instead of students not coming to study hall they had to come to their study hall, sign out and had their passes signed by the study hall supervisor. This system made it much easier to keep track of students and to contact them when necessary.

Mrs. Joan Hillier, secretary, will move to Missouri at the end of the year. Also, bookkeeper, Mrs. Evelyn Wieneke will assume similar duties at Taft Junior High School.

The Concert Choir Attains

The Jefferson Concert Choir brought enjoyment to innumerable people by the many appearances they made throughout the school year. Wherever they went they carried the distinct quality for which Jefferson music is known. Their series of concerts was highlighted by the Fall Pops Concert, their annual television broadcast along with "Christmas '64", the inter-city vocal festival, choir tour, and the spring vocal concert. By far the choir's biggest project was the production of "Guys and Dolls", a combined effort of music and drama departments which climaxed their successful year.

A Fine Vocal Reputation

April 3-6 was an exciting weekend for the Concert Choir when they went on tour visiting Luther College in Decorah, and Minneapolis, Minnesota, where appearances were made at the Bethany Lutheran Church, the Minnehaha Academy and at the University of Minnesota. It is doubtful that many choir members will forget the wonderfully appreciative people who saw the choir perform.

As master of the musical trade, Mr. Carlson has once again proven that the hard work involved in directing a choir of this size is worth every ounce of the effort.

In order to have a successful choir there must be an efficient group of officers to lead the group through its numerous activities. This year's choir was certainly not at a loss for an active council. Busily displaying their individual duties are: front row, Leatta Derhammer, Alumni Secretary; Keitha Jones, Librarian; Colleen Kelly, Historian. Second row: Terry Hollister, Department Manager; Steve Vosatka, Accompanist; Gary McDowell, Student Director conducting ensemble composed of Lana Smith, Mary Beth Duncan, Carol Chalupsky, Kay Border, Julie Burbridge. Back row: Steve Cecil, Treasurer; Ruth Lortz, Vice President; Roger Smith, Audio Technician; Vicki Koutny, Secretary; and Ron Youtzy, President.

Singing Becomes Enjoyable To Members Of Choir

The annual inter-city vocal clinic, held March 9 in the Jefferson gym, displayed all types of choral music and featured a guest conductor, Weston Noble, who heads the music department at Luther College.

Perhaps many will best remember this year's Concert Choir by their performance of the patriotic cantata, "Ballad For Americans", by John Latouche and Earl Robinson. Steve Shaffer sang the baritone solo while the choir helped him to tell the story of our country and the people who have made it what it is. This selection was surely one of the finest works included in the choir's repertoire.

Part In A Busy Concert Season

Bruce White has served as the bands' drum major for the past two years. Majorettes are Diane Ferreter, Carol Krob and Linda Kaplan.

Band Members

If you ask a bandmember how many times they've played the J-Hawk fight song since the beginning of the football season, you may be sure that it will take a while before he can make a reasonable approximation. An important function of the Band is to provide the necessary spirit for athletic contests. Football games gave the Band a chance to show their skill at maneuvering in the half-time drills while pepbands cheered up the basketball games and pep assemblies. For the winter season the Band changed its pace to prepare a television performance at Christmas and a series of fine symphonic concerts for Jefferson audiences as well as those on tour at Cedar Falls. Finally, the Eastern Iowa Band Festival set the Band on its feet as it prepared for its final parade appearance.

Given Good Musical Experience

Mr. Anderson's wonderful directorship has capably served the Jefferson Band for the past eight years. Next fall he will leave Jefferson to teach music at a new junior high school after he concludes a well-deserved European tour which will take him to many exciting music festivals.

The Pat Jones Award Commends Musicianship

Judy Newport has amply displayed her musical ability throughout her three years at Jefferson. She has obtained a remarkable record of superior ratings at city and state contests and is one of the very few persons to have been chosen a member of the All-State Band for four straight years. In addition to bassoon, Judy has also studied bass clarinet, baritone saxophone, B-flat clarinet, and is a member of Concert Choir and Municipal Band. Judy will be continuing her study of music at The University of Iowa.

Lana Smith Hosts Festival As Band Queen

The Eastern Iowa Band Festival is for those who enjoy hearing the solid sound of a hundred brass or seeing a group of high-stepping bandmembers keep time to the steady rhythm of a snappy march. The Jefferson Band along with nearly forty bands from all over Eastern Iowa participated in the afternoon parade and evening festival held in Cedar Rapids on May 15. Lana Smith was chosen to represent the Jefferson Band and act as host queen from our school. Lana, a senior, plays saxophone in band and is also an active member of Concert Choir and Thespians.

Sophomores, Terry Rasmussen
and Mark Stodola

Carnival Royalty Chosen

One of the biggest projects of the band is the annual carnival for which a king and queen are elected from each class and crowned at the platter dance held along with the band concerts and games. The proceeds help pay for the expenses of the band trips and uniforms.

Jefferson Is Alive With Music

Most any kind of music interest can be satisfied at Jefferson from those who merely enjoy attending concerts to the individuals who devote a large portion of their school activities to this interest. Music is a part of everyone's life no matter how large or small a part this may be. The Jefferson Orchestra is only one of the many ways students are brought to a deeper appreciation of the fine arts.

Whenever sixty young musicians pack all their instruments and good spirit into a couple of buses on their way to a concert, you can bet there will be a lot of good fun involved.

Besides taking part in the larger instrumental groups, many students find valuable experience playing in small ensembles which compete in city and state contests.

Instrumentalists from all over the state are auditioned and selected to participate in the All-State Orchestra and Band, which meets in Des Moines during the Thanksgiving weekend. This year Jefferson was represented by five bandmembers and twelve in the Orchestra. Caught in one of their free periods between the long hours of rehearsal, three dedicated musicians display their talents.

Judy Dvorak applies her efforts to a routine orchestra rehearsal and tries to make a little more sense out of a Mendelssohn concerto.

Jefferson High School is fortunate in having a Concert Orchestra for it is not often that such fine facilities are offered for students of string instruments. The orchestra provides the worthwhile experience of group performance and acquaints participants with many fine orchestral scores. Mr. Tjaden directed this year's group through a series of well-received performances. Fall brought the annual Pops Concert, All-State tryouts, and a fund-raising project to purchase a harpsichord.

To Build A Good Repertoire

The Winter season meant preparation for contests and an orchestra festival in Iowa City. Early in spring, the Orchestra played for two junior high audiences and ended the season with the Spring Concert in May. Mr. Tjaden provided the Orchestra with a wide variety of selections and, on occasion, featured student soloists, having recognized the valuable experience gained by those who are given the opportunity to perform with the Orchestra.

On many fine mornings, while others are catching that last precious hour of sleep, one may find the Orchestra involved in an important rehearsal.

Desperations Of The Human Race

"Oh, oh, oh! Six o'clock and the master not home yet. Pray God nothing serious has happened to him crossing the Hudson River. The fact is I don't know what'll become of us. Here it is the middle of August and the coldest day of the year. It's simply freezing; the dogs are sticking to the sidewalks; can anybody explain that? No. But I'm not surprised. The whole world's at sixes and sevens, and why the house hasn't fallen down about our ears long ago is a miracle to me."

"This telegram was flashed from Murray Hill to University Heights! And then by puffs of smoke from University Heights to Staten Island. And then by lantern from Staten Island to Plainfield, New Jersey. What hath God wrought!"

"I'm sorry Mr. Fitzpatrick but I'm not going to play this particular scene tonight. It's just a short scene and we're going to skip it. I've told the audience all they need to know and now we can go on."

Portrayed In "The Skin Of Our Teeth"

"I tell the future, Keck. Nothing easier. Everybody's future is in their face. Nothing easier. But who can tell your past - eh? Nobody! You're like our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Antrobus; you lie awake nights trying to know your past. What did it mean? What was it trying to say to you? Think! Think! Split your heads. I can't tell the past and neither can you. If anybody tries to tell you the past, take my word for it, they're charlatans! Charlatans! But I can tell you the future."

"Will you please start handing up your chairs? We'll need everything for this fire. Ushers, will you pass the chairs up here? Pass up your chairs, everybody. Save the human race!"

"Shoot me, I tell you. You don't have to think I'm any relation of yours. I haven't got any father or any mother, or brothers or sisters. And I don't want any. And what's more I haven't got anybody over me; and I never will have. I'm alone, and that's all I want to be: alone. So you can shoot me."

After Brack (Mark Stodola) breaks away from jail, he meets Jennie (Janelle Martinko) and together they remember when they first met.

The Girls Choir, Girls Chorus and Boys Choir produced a short musical drama by Kurt Weill and Arnold Sundgaard on November 19 and 21. Torrence Carlson directed while sets were designed by Terry Hollister and constructed by Roger Meeker. The story concerns Brack Weaver who is sentenced to be hanged for the killing of Tom Bouche and breaks out of jail to meet the girl he loves, Jennie Parsons.

They recall the church meeting they attended where the Leader (Bill Biederman, left) conducted worship and how afterwards they walked home and made plans to attend the Shadow Creek Barn Dance. Jennie's father (Dave Gerleman, above-) thought differently, though, and insisted that she go with Tom Bouche (Al Hammond, above).

Folk Opera Presented With "Down In The Valley"

When Jennie appears at the dance (above) with Brack, Bouche becomes angered and draws a knife to harm Brack (below). The two then remember how Brack killed Bouche and was put into jail.

Jennie finally reminds Brack that since he's broken from jail there will probably be someone after him and so reluctantly they part, and Brack sings of his dreams of the future which someday he will spend with Jennie.

Jeff Students Delight Children's Valley

Once upon a time there was a nice street in a nice town and this street was called Main Street. Mr. Frumpkins (Rick Adkins) and his helper, Andrew (Mike Pruett), had their doll shop on Main Street and they made the very best dolls in all the world. One day, a runaway clown (just like Dodo) came to Main Street. He was very sad and so he went to see Mr. Frumpkins' beautiful dolls and instantly fell in love with Gloria (Carol Schrage), the most beautiful of them all. But Mr. Frumpkins would not sell her for any amount of money so Dodo gave up and went to sleep under a nearby tree. During the night, Rudolph Bernard Boo (Tom Miskimen) and Ugly (Jim Cada), the terrible robbers, came and stole all of the beautiful dolls while Dodo peacefully slept on.

Theatre With "Clown Who Ran Away"

One of the most interesting projects taken on by the dramatics department is the production of a children's theatre show for the Junior League of Cedar Rapids. Nearly six thousand children saw one of the six performances given on December 11 and 12 under the direction of Robert Geuder and with sets designed by Craig Roloff with the assistance of Roger Meeker. This year's play was "The Clown Who Ran Away" which tells the delightful story of Dodo (Steve Vosatka), an ordinary clown who is simply tired of trying to be funny all the time and who runs away from the circus to do something he's always wanted to do--tell stories. He begins to tell the best story he's ever told before.

When Dodo awoke to find the dolls gone, he cried of shame for not having prevented the awful happening. Just then he met a writing horse named Gladys (Jane Benson and Lynne Jones) who said she would try and follow the robbers and galloped off leaving Dodo behind. The policeman (Jeff Witt, left) offered no help and even tried to arrest Dodo for looking so suspicious. All of a sudden, Gladys came proudly strutting back with the robbers and unharmed dolls. Dodo was still not happy so he decided to go back to the circus taking Gladys with him and come back again some day when he could buy Gloria for his own.

Band And Choirs Retell Christmas Story

"Christmas '64" was observed on December 14 and 15 by the combined efforts of Thespians, Choir and Concert Band. Under the direction of Mr. Anderson, the band featured many seasonal selections followed by a dramatization of the beautiful story, "Why The Chimes Rang". It was accompanied in song by the Concert Choir directed by Torrence Carlson. The Festival Chorus and Concert Band closed with three combined selections at which time all who participated brought a gift to the stage for the Salvation Army.

"Why The Chimes Rang" is the story of Peter (Steve Peterson) and his younger brother (Jim Hiding) who are about to make a visit to the nearby cathedral with their uncle (Jim Ware) in observance of Christmas. It is said that the long-silenced chimes would again ring if a suitable gift were placed upon the altar. However, Peter meets an old woman who is cold and hungry and he sends his uncle and brother ahead with his single gold coin so that he can help her. From his house he can see the extravagant gifts being offered by Kings and statesmen. He watches as Timothy places the coin on the altar and listens in amazement as the chimes begin to ring. Suddenly an angel appears to Peter telling him that his gift, which came from the heart and represented a true sacrifice for the Christ child, was by far of greatest value.

The traditional Bethlehem tableau (Mary, Wendy Walters; Joseph, Mark Stodola) brought the true meaning of Christmas to those who saw "Christmas '64".

Later in the week, the Concert Choir, Festival Chorus and Band presented a Christmas assembly in the gym.

"The Death Of A Salesman"

Wins Contest Honors

"Pop" I'm a dime a dozen and so are you! I am not a leader of men, Willy and neither are you; you were never anything but a hard-working drummer who landed in the ash can like all the rest of them!"

"Willy was a salesman; and for a salesman, there is no rock bottom to the life. He's a man way out there in the blue riding on a smile and a shoeshine; and when they start not smiling back--boy, that's an earthquake."

In this year's season of dramatic competition Jefferson entered a cutting of Arthur Miller's modern tragedy, "Death Of A Salesman". The play centers around Willy Loman, a man exhausted by his insufficiency as a salesman and sustained only by an illusion of the past when he was "well liked". He has ruined his two sons, Happy and Biff by refusing to face reality and remaining immature with them. His wife, Linda, has also been deceived by his worthless values. Rather than to see himself as he is, Willy finally commits suicide. The cast was as follows: Willy Loman, Steve Shaffer; Linda, Rosie Rimrodt; Biff, Tom Miskimen; Happy, Jim Niebuhr; Ben, John Ransom; and Charlie, Jim Cada.

Under the skillful direction of Robert Geuder and with sets designed and constructed by Roger Meeker, the play received a division 1 rating at the J-Hawk invitational Speech Tournament as well as at District Finals. For his fine portrayal of Biff Loman, Tom Miskimen was given a best actor's award at the J-Hawk Invitational.

"I can't understand it. At this time, especially. First time in thirty years we were just about free and clear. He only needed a little salary. He was even finished with the dentist."

"Willy, dear, why did you do it? I search and search and I search, and I can't understand it. Willy, I made the last payments on the house today. Today, dear. And they'll be nobody home."

The Rivals

Richard Brinsley Sheridan's play, "The Rivals", brought a very unique type of theatre to the Jefferson stage--that of the extravagant eighteenth century England. As one of the finest comedies of that time, the play is one of mistaken identity. It pokes fun at the sentimentality of two couples, each of which concerns a superficial conflict. Lydia Languish is a sensitive young lady of great wealth who insists upon creating a romance with someone of lower society, her Ensign Beverly. Captain Absolute assumes this title in order to marry into her status. Mrs. Malaprop (Vicki Koutny, at left), who is Lydia's aunt, and Sir Anthony Absolute (Steve Shaffer, at left), who is the father of Captain Absolute, both wish to get their hand into the love affair. Mr. Acres rivals the Captain as both seek Lydia's love. However, Sir Lucius O'Trigger challenges "Beverly" to a duel after he falsely pursues Lydia but is stopped when Mrs. Malaprop and Sir Anthony clarify the mistaken names and arrange for the marriage of Captain Absolute and Miss Languish. The playwright exhibits his lavishness as he elaborates upon Mrs. Malaprop's hilarious misusages of language which have come to be known as malapropisms. He also exaggerates the secondary love affair between Faulkland and Julia which adds to the over-sentimentality he plays upon.

The fatuous Mrs. Malaprop engages in slyly overhearing the conversation of Lydia (Carol Schrage) and Captain Absolute (Jim Niebuhr).

Captain Absolute and Acres (Kimm Stastny) treat Faulkland's (Terry Hollister) exaggerated doubt of Julia's love in a good-natured manner.

Sir Lucius (Jim Cada) engages in a duel to settle his quarrel over Lydia with Captain Absolute who is mistaken for Ensign Beverly.

Lucy (Carol Roustio), the witty maid of Lydia Languish, listens to her mistress' romantic talk.

Sir Lucius (Jim Cada), confused by the false names, is a victim of the mistaken identity and finds that Mrs. Malaprop is the Delia he has sought.

Mannerisms And Dialogue Of Eighteenth Century

To add to the comic intent of the play, Sheridan satirizes sentiments of love by contrasting the heartfelt delicacy and absurd romanticism of Faulkland (Terry Hollister) to the simplicity and tenderness of Julia (Janelle Martinko).

Bob Acres (Kimm Stastny, at left) is the amiable rustic of Clod Hall who contributes to the action as well as the satirical humor by becoming rival to Captain Absolute for the hand of Lydia Languish. His servant, David (Kenn Nye), is pictured above.

Challenge Cast of "The Rivals"

As director of the production, Mr. Geuder took on the difficult task of training his cast in the refinement and gentility which were demanded by many of the characterizations. The costumes proved an added chore for the actors as well as those who sewed them. The hoop skirts were used weeks before production (April 25-7) to enable them to be properly handled. Most all members of the cast wore wigs and boys donned fancy waistcoats and breeches.

As director of the scenic effects, Roger Meeker converted the entire auditorium into the style of the eighteenth century. He decided to construct a maze of platforms beyond the proscenium to facilitate the valuable relationship between actors and audience. Since the curtain was not used throughout the entire performance, scenes were changed by means of the mobile platform located behind the main arch or by the four servants pictured below (Emmit Omar, Sue Ramsey, Sue Boyd and Tim Stewart) who lended to the continuous action of the play.

The delicate sound of a harpsichord played by Rick Adkins added a great deal to the style of "The Rivals".

The story opens upon the unsuccessful efforts of Sarah Brown (Lana Smith, above) to bring her message of the Save-A-Soul Mission to the many and varied people of Broadway like Nathan Detroit who is trying to find a place to hold the oldest established permanent floating crap game in New York.

Guys & Dolls

The performing arts department of Jefferson once more drew capacity crowds to their eighth annual musical comedy, "Guys and Dolls" presented May 6,7,8,14, and 15. Written by Frank Loesser, the musical fable of Broadway is based upon a story and characters by Damon Runyon. From this show have sprung such tunes as "Bushel and a Peck", "I'll Know", "If I Were A Bell", and "Luck Be A Lady", which were avidly worked into top shape by a very talented cast.

Nathan, to gain the thousand bucks he needed to rent a place for the game, makes an absurd bet with Sky Masterson (Steve Shaffer, Best Thesplan for '64-65)--that he cannot take Sarah Brown to Havana for dinner. Sky succeeds in getting her there but El Cafe Cubano turns into a mass riot (above) and Sky takes Sarah home while in the meantime both discover they have a special attraction for each other.

Nathan has a good many problems of his own. Adelaide, who works in the Hot Box Night Club (above), becomes very upset whenever he arranges a crap game which is precisely his problem--to keep his friends (above, bottom) happy until he finds a place.

Finally the game is staged in the sewer and Big Jule (Jon Meskimen) leads much of the crapshooting.

Nathan (Gary McDowell) pleads with Adelaide to forgive him for running the crap game again--but Adelaide (Sherry Murphy) wants to get married since they've been engaged for fourteen years.

Sarah decides that she really loves Sky and their marriage is shortly followed by that of Nathan and Adelaide to bring "Guys and Dolls" to a very happy ending.

Work on a production of this size begins early in the spring and snowballs to involve most everyone from the music and drama departments. Choreography is only one of the aspects for which cast prospects are tested as seen at the right.

"Guys And Dolls" Climaxes Theatre Season

Production time of a typical Jeff musical keeps at least three seemingly tireless individuals constantly on their toes. Mr. Geuder (above) concentrates on the dramatic end while the sets are all the creation of Roger Meeker (left). Mr. Carlson (below) handles all singing within the Concert Choir and also meets with the operetta orchestra. Together, the three have brought Jefferson its high quality of musical drama.

"Good order is the foundation of all good things."

Organizations

YOUTH FOR CHRIST CLUB - The Youth for Christ Club presents Christ as the primary answer to the questions and problems of students' lives. It participates in Greater Cedar Rapids Y.F.C. and Y.F.C. International. The club is non-sectarian, has no set membership or dues, and all students are welcomed to attend. This year's officers are: Roger Smith, president; Carol Scrage, vice president--programming; Mike Pruett, vice-president--management; Ruth Lortz, secretary-treasurer; Carol Roustio, social chairman; Kay Priborsky, Mark Arnold, public relations co-chairmen; Terry Murray, David Lorenc, welcoming committee co-chairmen. Faculty adviser is Mr. Robert Ask.

YFC Welcomes Students Of All Denominations

CHESS CLUB - Chess Club has had a rebuilding year, as most of the members were sophomores. The group consisted of around twenty members that were interested in playing chess. The team played in several meets with teams from Jesup, Cedar Falls, and State College high schools.

GUN CLUB - Good attendance and diligent practice paid off for ten members of Gun Club this year. The top ten marksmen were given awards in the spring.

FUTURE NURSES - Members of Future Nurses Club of America enjoyed many instructive programs with themes centered around careers in nursing. A bake sale, the only fund raising project of the year, was held in November during the Jefferson High School Open House. As a service project members made puppets for the pediatrics ward at St. Lukes.

LATIN CLUB - The newly organized "Societas Latina" started the year by drawing up a written constitution. During the year regular meetings were enriched by guest speakers. Other activities included a Christmas party, a spring pool party, and assisting the International Club with its annual Mardi Gras.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB - The International Club aims for better understanding of people in other countries. This is done through various speakers, including exchange students. The club also raised money to assist the AFS student chosen from Jefferson to go abroad. This is accomplished by the annual Mardi Gras Costume Ball and other activities.

G.R.A. - The 1964-65 G.R.A. Club sponsored a fun night for students in the fall, a play night for the G.R.A. clubs of the four junior highs and Washington, and a Saturday play day in April.

G.R.A., Letterman Emphasize Physical Fitness

LETTERMAN'S CLUB - Letterman's Club stimulated interest and support of Jefferson's athletic program. Booster buttons were sold to the student body and recognition was given to outstanding athletes during the year. A scholarship was presented by the club to the outstanding athlete of the year.

Students Plan for Future

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA - The members participated in a busy year including several service projects. Bibs were made for the children at the Cerebral Palsy Center, and a Christmas party was given for the children of the Sunshine Mission. The year wound up with a Mother-Daughter Dinner in May.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA -
The 1964-65 FBLA Club consisted of 111 members. One of the major functions this year was raising money, which was accomplished by selling candy bars and baked goods and holding a slave auction.

As a community service project at Christmas the club distributed cookies and sang carols at several nursing homes. The members also repaired toys for needy children.

The officers were Pat Rohlena, president; Sue Arp, vice-president; Kathy Pechota, secretary; Sharon Gallagher, treasurer; Wendy Walters, reporter; Sandy Graham, historian; and Brinda Henry, state treasurer.

THESPIANS - Dramatic activities during the year kept Thespian members more than busy as they worked and acted their way through five productions. Two three-act plays, "The Skin of Our Teeth" and "The Rivals," were presented in early fall and late winter. "The Clown Who Ran Away" was presented for The Children's Theatre League of Cedar Rapids at the Coe College Auditorium. A cutting from the play "Death of a Salesman" was entered in the Iowa State Speech Association contest and the J-Hawk Invitational speech contest. Many Thespians also participated as actors, dancers, orchestra members and technical crews on the spring musical, "Guys and Dolls". Dramatic enrichment was another part of the Thespian program for the year as they attended plays at other schools and colleges, as well as the touring company of "Oliver" at Des Moines.

STUDENT SPEAKERS - This year the Student Speakers became members of the National Forensic League. The Forensic League is the leading speech association in the United States. Carol Roustio and Vicki Koutny won first place in their respective divisions at the Iowa Forensic League District Contest in Cedar Falls.

At the Iowa Forensic Debate Contest, the Jefferson debaters took fifth place with a 7-1 record. The team was only one point shy of going into the finals to determine the grand champion. At the Wahlert Invitational, Mike Pruett won a superior rating, the highest given. The major project of the Student Speakers is the annual J-Hawk Invitational Speech Contest and Debate Tournament. This event drew 300 participants from 40 schools throughout Iowa. The contest was very successful because of the increased number of participants and stiffer competition.

PROJECTION CLUB - The Projection Club started a system this year whereby the members are required to take operation tests. Those passing it are awarded licences which state that they are qualified for several types of audio-visual equipment within the school.

Ushers Provide Valuable Service As Guides At Plays

USHER'S CLUB - The members of Usher's Club served as guides at plays, concerts, and special performances where they helped in seating the audience, taking tickets, and handing out programs. For the production of "The Rivals," they helped create the elegant atmosphere of the seventeenth century by wearing dresses of that period.

Venture Features Wider Variety Of Student Creativity

This year's Venture was created efficiently and successfully. A broader scope of creative works was used. There was a new section devoted to art work and both drama and music were represented. In all, over 200 works were submitted.

The ultimate purpose of Venture goes beyond just publishing a school literary magazine; it provides a creative outlet for Jefferson students.

Kimm Stastny's powerful arm aided the J-Hawks in countless situations during the '64 season. His best performance was in the Championship game against Rock Island.

The J-Hawks began the season by meeting the Big Six co-champs, WEST WATERLOO. The determined Jeff squad held the visiting single-wing unit to 31 net yards rushing. The J-Hawk offense performed admirably as Steve Zobac collected three touchdowns and Bob Jamison one. The final score was 27 - 6, demonstrated that the J-Hawks and the Mississippi Valley Conference were to be reckoned with in the ensuing season. Bill Long, Jim Ramsden, Jim Green, Jack Ballou, Ken Stewart, Bob Fulton, Jon Meskimen, John Knutson, Jim Norris, and Lynn Lamb formed the core of the defense that would stop opponents all season.

The next week the J-Hawks carried their No. 1 tag to EAST MOLINE to play the improved Panthers at Soule Bowl. Jefferson outmanned East Moline and with the help of great defensive ball the team rolled up an impressive 20 - 0 halftime lead on scores by Jon Meskimen, John Knutson, and Jim Goforth. The J-Hawks faltered by giving up two fumbles but held the Panthers to less than 100 yards rushing.

This is the heart of the J-Hawks defense in action. The complete coverage of all players helped the J-Hawks to a fabulous defensive average and constantly harrassed opposing team.

Jeff beat CLINTON by the score of 34 - 13. John Knutson and Jon Meskimen each scored a touchdown. Meskimen's came on his second intercepted pass of the season. Rod Brecke, Jim Goforth, and Lynn Lamb contributed scores. Ron McDonald scored on four of five extra point attempts.

The DUBUQUE RAMS came to Cedar Rapids to put their undefeated rating on the line against the undefeated J-Hawks. In the first quarter, Knutson gave Jefferson a 6 - 0 lead. The line held the Rams backfield to just 89 yards rushing and 44 yards passing. Jeff did not score until the final quarter when Rod Brecke went over from one yard after the play had been set up by a Fulton interception. Lamb scored the final touchdown.

Jeff Downs West In Homecoming Tilt

Quarterback Kimm Stastny is shown at the moment the ball is snapped. The Jeff line is ready to execute another fine play.

Homecoming Festivities were made complete with a J-Hawk Victory over WEST DAVENPORT, 41 - 0. The offense was led by John Knutson, who scored twice and Bob Fulton, Rod Brecke, Ted Knutson, and Terry Edler who each scored once. The J-Hawks held the Falcons to 67 yards on the ground and a meager 20 yards through the air. Ron McDonald converted 5 of 6 extra points. Jeff's defending Valley Champs played a scoreless first quarter, but by half-time they had racked up a 14 to 0 lead. In the second half the scoring barrage was continued and the J-Hawks completely outmanned and out-played the Falcons. Nearly every Jefferson player saw action in the final quarter.

Junior Jon Meskimen, shown here making one of his fine defensive plays, is one reason why the J-Hawks are looking forward to another good year in 1965.

Washington was the pre-season pick as the number one team in the state. The Warriors were seeking revenge because of Jeff's three wins. With the help of Pete Kohland and Mike Reed, Wash had averaged over 400 yards per game. It was the best offense against the best defense. The defense won as Green, Long, Ramsden, Stewart, Hellentall, Norris, Knutson, Meskimen, Lamb, Fulton and Jamison put on a tremendous show once holding Wash on the three yard line. Rod Brecke and Steve Zobac scored two touchdowns with McDonald making both extra points. Zobac's tally came on a fourth down pass from Kimm Stastny to make the score 14 to 0. Brecke made a terrific 50 yard kick to keep the J-Hawks out of a tough predicament. This win gave the West Side a 4 - 3 lead in the series with one tie. All four wins were in a row.

Undefeated J-Hawks Repeat

The second phase of Operation Championship was played against the undefeated Little Hawks at Iowa City. Tom Cilek, the leading passer in the MVC and a host of speedy backs were determined to halt the J-Hawk drive. The Jeff gridders won the toss and began the scoring by marching 72 yards. Rod Brecke took the ball over for the touchdown on a two yard plunge. Later Jim Norris blocked a City High punt; the ball bounded across the end line and the J-Hawks were awarded a safety. The strong Jeff defense held the Little Hawks from scoring in the second half and the J-Hawks continued rolling toward the championship with a 9 - 0 win. The following week the Jefferson team traveled to Brady Street Stadium to play CENTRAL DAVENPORT. A hard charging line and a big, fast back-field were enough to tie the J-Hawks 7 to 7. The Blue Devils' Rod Taylor scored with two minutes remaining in the game. Jeff drove to the Central 24 yard line, but the drive fell short and the J-Hawks settled for a tie and blemished an otherwise perfect season.

As Conference Champions

Lynn Lamb lunges at the right moment to break up a Davenport pass. He was a linebacker and captain of the defensive unit.

For the third consecutive year, the Jefferson team came into the last game of the season vying for the Conference Championship. In 1964 they were not only trying to win the conference championship, but also the mythical State Championship and an undefeated season. The Rocks had assembled the best passing attack ever put forth in Mississippi Valley history. Because of their fine receivers and their outstanding quarterback, Wilson, the Rocks were the pre-game favorite. The J-Hawks planned otherwise. Jeff planned to do this by keeping on the ground. The West Siders made two long marches pay off in touchdowns. During the game, eight fourth downs were made into first downs or touchdowns by the versatile J-Hawks. Norris scored the first touchdown on a 4th down pass from Stastny. John Knutson finished a 75 yard drive by scoring from the three. The third tally came just before the half. Jefferson took over on the Rock Island 18 with 15 seconds left. Stastny passed to Goforth in the end zone to raise the score to 20 to 0 at intermission. Jeff's last touchdown was by Rod Brecke. The final score was 27 - 14. It was the perfect climax for the best season in J-Hawk history.

Fine blocking, good passing and excellent receivers helped to make the sophomore team a smooth working machine.

Once again the Jefferson sophomore football team proved to be excellent training for the varsity by having another perfect season. Coaches Dutch Sauerbry and Bob Allen always seem to be able to get that special team together that works with enough desire and determination to go undefeated. In the first game of the season, the sophs crushed the Toledo Juvenile Home 38-0. Nearly everyone scored and played. The sophomores were on their way to another perfect season.

The junior J-Hawks then traveled to Clinton where they won 20 - 0. The Clinton team was one of the toughest the J-Hawks played. Bob Kohl was the leading individual as he scored twice. The sophomores then defeated Dubuque 39 to 0. Bob Kohl scored twice on runs and once on a 70 yard punt return to lead the J-Hawk charge. The big game for the sophs was the Wash-Jeff game. The home team came through with the big win downing Wash 26 - 7. Layne McDowell scored twice and kicked two extra points to help the J-Hawk Victory. The next game was against the Little Hawks at Iowa City where the visitors defeated the home team by the score of 26 - 7. Joe Schmickle was the big scorer as he passed one and caught one pass for two touchdowns. The sophomores also defeated Davenport Central by the score of 41 to 20.

The sophomores compiled an impressive record of 243 points to their opponents 40. Kohl and Rudd lead the team in rushing while Lawrence was the team leader in passing. The prospects for the coming years in football appear extremely bright.

The 1964-65 J-Hawk basketball season began with an encouraging victory over Washington, Iowa, outscoring them 78-61. After two conference losses to Iowa City and Rock Island, Jefferson proceeded to defeat Clinton by a score of 60-57. Jefferson then lost a close game to West Davenport and Cedar Rapids Washington. Next came the high points of the season, as the East Moline Panthers invaded the J-Hawk Gym. East Moline, rated number three in Illinois, was defeated by the hustling J-Hawks in an overtime game 89-88. During this rousing game Jeff's Al Jenkins dropped in 34 points to set an all time school scoring mark. Jefferson went on to win five straight games and placed fourth in the Mississippi Valley Conference. It was a midseason spurt that enabled the fighting J-Hawks to finish 5th in the Valley.

Jefferson began the District Tournament with close wins over Marion and Prairie. This enabled Jefferson to face the Washington Warriors in the District finals. The J-Hawks edged out the Warriors from the opening sound of the gun to soundly whip their opponents by a score of 58-52. Jefferson then won closely over Iowa City 53-51 in the first round sub-state game. This advanced the J-Hawks into the finals against Keokuk. Jefferson's bid for a state tourney birth ended when Keokuk defeated the J-Hawks by a sound 70-57 margin.

Larry Clauson, Co-captain, provided fine leadership during the season.

Sophomore Basketball Team Takes Third In Conference

Coached by LaVern Sauerbry and Bob Allen, the sophomores managed to rack up a respectable 17-11 record this year. This enabled them to finish a strong third in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Sophomore B. J. Trickey led the Valley in scoring with an outstanding 22.7 per game average.

B. J. Trickey, who was the top sophomore scorer, is destined to be a valuable asset to the 1965-66 team.

Sophomore Larry Baker is shown shooting a free throw. He advanced to the varsity team early in the season and improved greatly to become a valuable player.

Steve Strauss Named All-American In Back Stroke

The 1964 - 1965 Jefferson swimming team had a rebuilding year. One stand-out performer was Steve Strauss. He was named All-American for the second year in a row. Last year his effort came in the individual medley. This year, he received it for his performance in the back stroke. His time was 57.2 in the event. Steve also was first in the State meet in the backstroke with a time of 57.5 seconds. The team record of 55.6 seconds in the butterfly was also set by Strauss. Steve Stastny placed second in diving in the State meet.

The J-Hawks compiled a 5 - 7 over all record in dual meets. Conference record for the swimmers was 3 - 5. Coach Brockway lost most of his power from the 1963 - 1964 team and had to depend heavily on many first year varsity swimmers. New team records for the year were: 200 yard free style - time 1:58.4, 100 butterfly 55.6, and 100 yard back stroke, time 57.2. All of these records were set by Steve Strauss.

In a season shortened by ten games because of rain, the J-Hawks put out an 8-7 record. But even with this record, the baseball team was second in the Mississippi Valley Conference. Jeff's tournament hopes were smashed by a hot Regis team, 3-1.

The real heart-breaker was the East Waterloo game. At the end of the seventh inning the score was 2-2. The game went seven more innings when East compiled seven runs to end the game at 9-2.

Co-captains Lorenzen and Usher were team leaders and helped the team in their effort. Gene Miller led the team in batting with a .333 to keep the J-Hawks going when it got tough.

This season proved to be an interesting one and Coach Bredeson hopes for a better season next year.

John Knutson's performance in sports this year earned for him the award of Athlete of the Year. Here he displays his form in the discus that helped the J-Hawk track team. John placed second in the state in this event. Also, he competed in the shot put.

The spring track season began for the J-Hawks with the participation in the Drake Federation Track meet. Jon Meskimen set a shot put record. The next meet was the State Indoor in which the J-Hawks took seventh place. The first outdoor meet of the season saw the J-Hawks receive first in 880 yard relay and in the shot put. At the Dickinson Relays the following week, Jon Meskimen got first in the shot and Bob Kohl won the 100 yard dash. The 880 yard relay team picked up a first place and the mile relay team came in second. At the Drake Relays, Jeff was impressive by winning first in the shot put, discus, and 100 yard dash. The J-Hawk relays proved that the track team was coming into its own as the cinder-men placed third. Bob Kohl again took first in the 100 while the mile relay team set a school record of 8 minutes 16 seconds. Jon Meskimen set the Iowa Interscholastic Record in the shot with a toss of 60 feet 10 1/4 inches. Jeff placed second in the district meet and earned sixth place in the state meet. The big victory of the year was the first place finish in the Mississippi Valley Conference Outdoor Track Meet. Jefferson is the second school in the history of the conference to win the title. The biggest upset came when Bill Bevill upset Wash's John Dvorak in the low hurdles. John Knutson and Jon Meskimen set records in their events. Jefferson's dual record was seven wins and two losses.

Bob Kohl is one of the best runners in Jefferson history. He was first at the Drake Relays and second in State in the 100 yard dash. He finished high in the 220 and 440. Also, he helped anchor the 880 yard relay team which gave valuable points to Jefferson in its conference win.

Junior Bill Bevill's biggest accomplishment this year came when he defeated Wash's John Dvorak at the Valley meet. This win and his efforts in the relays helped the J-Hawks take the Mississippi Valley Conference Outdoor Track crown. He helped Jefferson to its most remarkable year.

Warrell Metclaf was an outstanding member of this year's track squad. He was a fine individual as well as a reliable relay team member.

1965 Mississippi Valley Conference Team Trophy

The coaching staff of Mr. Fischer, Mr. Noonan, and Mr. Ask deserve all credit they receive. If it weren't for the long hours these men put in, juggling team lineups and making decisions about whether or not Bob Kohl would run in the relay or the dash, this team would not have succeeded. These men stayed the long hours it took to make championship form. It is the responsibility of these men to assist young athletes in the development of sound mental and physical bodies. The only rewards to their efforts are championships and the realization of jobs well done.

Larry Baker was a fine performer in the hurdles and the high jump.

Meskimen Cited As One Of Nation's Best

Junior Jon Meskimen is the epitome of desire and hard work. He has won first in the shotput in every meet in which he was entered. He worked long hours developing timing, dexterity and strength enough to throw the 12 lb. shot 60' 10 1/4" to be the third best high school shotputter in the nation. If desire and hard work were the only standards, he would have been first.

First State Journey Yields State Golf Crown

Young, Arch Cooper, Drew Fairchild, Jim Broussard, Dennis Smith, Lynn Lawrence

Nearly every spring afternoon after school you could find the golf team on its way to Ellis Park to play a practice round or practice on the special game. This devotion to the game led the J-Hawks to the State Golf Title. The enjoyment these boys gained from the sport can be seen in the year round practicing they do.

Under the excellent guidance of Mr. Earl Klinzman the team lost very few dual meets and set several records for low score total. He has given the team special hints, one of the big reasons Jefferson won the state title.

These four boys and Mr. Klinzman were the J-Hawk representatives in the state meet. Shown here from left to right are Arch Cooper, Drew Fairchild, Coach Klinzman, Jim Broussard, who shot a hole in one during the state tourney, and Dennis Smith, medalist in the state meet. These four have been playing together since they were sophomores. You could often find these four working on their golf game in the dead of winter. The reward was worth the effort.

This years tennis team was one of the most improved ever seen at Jefferson. Under the excellent leadership of coach Al Snider, the Jeff doubles team of Tim Richeson and Jim Wing swept the state doubles tournament.

One of the innovations used by Coach Snider this year was early spring practice inside the gym. While most of the teams were waiting for the courts to dry, Jefferson was tuning up for a winning season. This ingenious set-up put the J-Hawks way ahead of most of the teams.

Some of the outstanding individuals, other than Wing and Richeson, were Tom Van Deest; captain, Dave Cronbaugh, Bob Sample, and Kit Covington.

Jim Wing and Tim Richeson survived the pressure that was put on them this year and they went on to win their second straight state doubles championship. During the season their attitudes improved, and they accepted the pressure of being number one unflinchingly.

The state finals took place here in Cedar Rapids. Although the courts were in poor condition because of the intermittent showers, the doubles were completed. Wing and Richeson were in top condition as they breezed through all of their rounds.

These two boys have devoted long hours to the game and have merited the rich rewards they have reaped.

Jefferson Offers Sophomores New Ways To Use Time and Talents

A new school plus new classes and activities made high school an exciting experience for sophomores. They found new ways to spend their time. More time had to be spent on homework in subjects like biology, foreign language, and sophomore English or "team". But activities also demanded more of their hours--activities like swim club; athletics, including an undefeated football season; crews for the plays; and clubs for interests ranging from homemaking to guns to Latin. Sophomore girls had to suffer through swimming and wet hair, and all sophomores had to be reminded at least once that they were "only" sophomores.

The sophomore class lost one of its members, Jane Novak, in a tragic car accident on April 10, 1965.

Juniors returned to the now-familiar halls of Jefferson with energy and enthusiasm in many fields. They added their time and talents to activities like athletics, dramatics and music, the year-book, and other organizations, FBLA, Venture, and chess club, to name a few. Juniors took subjects like American history and literature or Heritage, chemistry, shorthand and typing, and shop courses. They began to think about the future as the first of the college tests, the P.S.A.T. and the National Merit Qualifying test were taken. Juniors climaxed the year with the Junior Prom and began to realize that next year they would be the graduating class to be leaving Jefferson.

The Senior Class of 1965 was successful in all their undertakings. Seniors received numerous awards in the fields of drama, sports, music, and academics. Schedules centered around government, physics, college prep, business courses, and math.

College expectations and business opportunities shaped the future. Graduation advanced quickly and mixed emotions were shown at Commencement; for the three years as Jefferson students were only memories.

Proud Of Their J-Hawk Heritage, Seniors Left

Jenny and her sister Toni Cecil, Marty and her sister Linda Owens, and International Club President Pam Shafer, prepare for Mardi Gras.

Virya Gallardo, of San Jose, Costa Rica, is popular among her many friends at Jefferson. She participated in Concert Choir, International Club, G.R.A., and enjoyed watching athletics. Marty says, "I'll remember all my life this year in the United States. It has been a wonderful experience to come to another country and find in it a nice family and many new friends." Marty plans to become a doctor or an English teacher.

Genevieve Herveic, from Marseille, France, is well known at Jefferson for her friendly personality. She is a member of G.R.A., Doll-fin-nettes, International Club, and Concert Choir. Her main interest is, "trying to know the most students as possible and share with them my experiences." Jenny enjoys everything at Jefferson and will always remember the friendship of the people in America.

Exchange Of Ideas

Jefferson was fortunate in having Mr. Erik Poulsen from Copenhagen, Denmark on it's faculty this year. Mr. Poulsen teaches German and World History at Jefferson. He greatly enjoys the United States. "Not only is it a great challenge personally to teach in a foreign country, but I received a different view of Americans. They are not a group, but many individuals." At Jefferson he is especially interested in the drama and music. Following the close of school, Mr. and Mrs. Poulsen toured the West before returning to Denmark.

Marty and Jenny, popular for their gaiety, try on costumes for the spring musical.

Marie Williams, an outstanding Jefferson student, spent eight weeks in Austria. She first lived in the village of Starndorf then stayed at her "family's" summer home on a mountain in Corinthia. Marie "felt like a member of the family and shared both in the work and play." She especially enjoyed meeting the Austrians from all walks of life. She stated, "I was lucky to be able to become a little bit more Austrian for eight weeks than American."

Jefferson's swim club, Doll-fin-nettes, presented their annual aquatic show, "The Land of Never," April 1, 2, 3. Thirty-six girls participated in thirteen acts, and Steve Strauss and Kathy Carpenter reigned over the show.

Doll-fin-nettes Present "Land of Never"

Dave Dixon as the pirate and Dick Wilson as the maiden in distress participated in the pirate number as representatives of the swim team.

The military brigade was formed by Wanda Steitz, Linda Ranard, and Suzette Frank.

Below is the floating card game. Two weeks following "The Land of Never" this number was presented at the International Aquatic Art Festival at Washington High and received an honorable mention.

"Misty" Used As Theme For Junior Prom

"Misty" was the theme of the Junior Prom on April 23 in the Jefferson dining room. The decorations consisted of a blue sign that said "Misty" covered with blue and white angel hair and a glitter ball also covered with blue and white angel hair. The effect was quite outstanding. The Bill Davis Combo provided the music for dancing. It was another successful year for the Junior Prom.

Mike Pruett, president, and Tom Blevins, vice president, enjoy the fruit of their efforts.

Aristotelian Chapter Of National Honor Society Inducts

Wayne Vavrichek, president of Aristotelian Chapter of National Honor Society announced the new members.

Aristotelian Chapter of National Honor Society initiated 67 juniors and seniors on April 7. Wayne Vavrichek as president of Jefferson's chapter presided over the ceremonies, and after the new members were announced four Honor Society members explained the ideals of the society. Ron Youtzy spoke on "character", Jim Norris on "service", Vicki Koutny on "leadership", and Carol Krob on "scholarship". Laurel Harbour presented the history of National Honor Society, Sue Conover played a violin solo "Serebande", the emblem of the society was explained by Judy Newport, and Marie Williams gave a speech of appreciation. The new Honor Society members were then presented their cards and pins.

Parents of the new inductees wait in the hallway for their child's name to be announced. They were then escorted into the gymnasium.

Cherolynn Nelson conducts the parents of a new inductee to their seats.

Laurel Harbour, along with members of the society and Mr. Paxson, is shown presenting the history of the society.

67 Juniors And Seniors

Senior inductees watch as Honor Society members receive their pins.

"Moments To Remember" At The Senior Prom

The Jim Pringle orchestra provided music for the senior prom at Armar ballroom, adding to the "Moments to Remember" for all students attending.

Chaperons, Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gueder kept an eye on the proceedings at the prom from the balcony.

Jim Broussard and Nancy Cmelik take time out from dancing to talk to chaperons Mr. and Mrs. Earl Klinzman.

There was plenty of room for dancing on the Armar floor. In the background, Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Paxson stop to talk with one of the couples.

The swirling pastels of floor-length formals and handsome black, white and blue dinner jackets were an impressive sight on the dance floor.

While taking an intermission from dancing, couples had a chance to have pop and popcorn at the tables and get caught up on their people watching.

Class Day Honors Graduating Seniors

"This Is Your Life, Thomas Jefferson 1965," was the theme of the class skit. Narrator, Steve Shafer helps Tom Jefferson (Mr. Robert Geuder) recall the many school organizations.

Senior class president, Jim Norris presided over class day activities.

Jefferson was proud to have three valedictorians this year. Mr. Paxson presented awards to Laurel Harbour, Marie Williams, and Sue Conover for having a 4 point grade average the past three years.

Though the class of 1965 numbered 581, the Monday before graduation they were honored in the traditional class day assembly in the gymnasium. Seniors wore their caps and gowns.

Awards for scholarships and athletics were announced, presents given to the foreign exchange students, the class present, a calender of events was presented to the school, and the class skit given.

Seniors sang the Jefferson Loyalty for the final time as they marched out under the arch.

Marie Williams was presented the John Daywitt award by Mr. Irv Ebinger. The award is given by the faculty each year to the student who shows the interest in learning and outstanding scholarship.

John Knutson was named athlete of the year by the Boosters Club and Jefferson coaches. John has won varsity letters in football, basketball, and track.

Valedictorians Speak At Commencement

Steve Vosatka and Carol Roustio, juniors, led the commencement procession of graduates into the Jefferson gymnasium.

Dr. Arnold Salisbury delivers the charge to the graduates.

Commencement 1965 was held in the Jefferson gymnasium instead of Kingston Stadium due to the inclement weather. A new tradition was instituted as the valedictorians spoke to the audience as representatives of their class. These speakers took the place of an outside speaker. A standing room only crowd heard Marie Williams, Laurel Harbour, and Sue Conover speak on "The Home," "The School," and "The Community" carrying out the theme - "Years Hence." Jim Norris, senior class president, presided at the exercises. Dr. Arnold Salisbury, Superintendent of the Cedar Rapids Community Schools, gave the charge to the class. Mr. W.L. Paxson, Principal, distributed the diplomas to the 581 seniors.

It is all over as Mr. W.L. Paxson, Jefferson's principal, distributes diplomas to the class of 1965. Above, Chuck Church receives his diploma. Jefferson students have many "Moments To Remember."

For a year this book has been our project, our work, our pride and apprehension, our hope, and our secret. Now we give it to you, and we hope that it retains for you as it does for us The Memory Of These Days.

For my part I wish to thank a great staff; their continued good humor made our task a pleasure. No amount of praise is equal to the guidance given to us by our own Mr. Beck; without him there would be no Statesman.

Also, credit is due to a most cooperative faculty and administration and to the Cedar Rapids Gazette which provided me with the opportunity to attend the Iowa High School Journalism Workshop at the University of Iowa.

The Class of 1965 is gone, and a new one has taken its place to carry on the fine traditions of a young school that has already touched greatness.
